International Complications Seen In Rubio's Slaying

PRESIDENT OF MEXICO IS SILENT

Official Reports Are Being Awaited By Government Before Action Is Taken

RESENTMENT GROWS

U. S. Ambassador Calls and Apologizes and Expresses Regret to Heads

MEXICO CITY, June 9.—(UP)—

The foreign office awaited official reports today on the fatal shooting of two Mexican youths, one a relative of President Pascual Ortiz Rubio, near Ardmore, Okla., yesterday.

Decision of what action should be taken was withheld pending word from the Mexican embassy in Washington and the Mexican consul at Oklahoma City.

The incident has caused growing resentment. The youths killed were Emilio Cortes Rubio, only son of Manuel Cortes Rubio, a cousin of the president, residing in Morelia, Michoacan state, and Manuel Garcia Gomez, also of Morelia. His mother, a widow, lives at Morelia. The third youth in the car, Salvador Cortes Rubio, who was not hurt, is a son of a prominent Mexico City attorney of the same name, also a cousin of President Ortiz Rubio.

The United States ambassador, J. Reuben Clark Jr., called on the president at Chapultepec castle and delivered a message of condolence from President Hoover. He also formally expressed the American government's regret and his own personal sorrow. The ambassador was accompanied by Arthur Lane, counselor of the embassy. Similar sentiments were expressed to Foreign Secretary Genaro Estrada.

Public opinion has been aroused by the incident, the general feeling being that the American officers who killed the youths employed "unnecessary extreme" measures. The newspaper Grafico gave the story display position on the front page, "scarce headlines saying: 'Two Young Mexicans Killed. Apparently Pure Assassination—One Relative President Ortiz Rubio—Unexpected Aggression of Sheriff—Unspeaking Incident.'"

Officials of the castle said the president's sons, Fernando and Guillermo, probably would have been in the same automobile except that the president, learning of their intention to motor home, cabled them forbidding the plan. The boys then decided to spend their summer vacation in New York, where they notified their father by wire that they intended to seek employment with a telephone company to study engineering.

The Morelia correspondent of the newspaper La Prensa said news of the deaths of the two youths created great excitement in their native town and that a demonstration in protest would be held today. The young men were the only children in their respective families.

Boasting Not Good Form Around Lindy

NEW YORK, June 9.—(UP)—A summons server, so far unidentified, realized today that bragging sometimes is costly.

The man commented somewhat boastfully that it was easy to serve summonses on big men after he had served one on Col. Charles A. Lindbergh at North Port, L. I., thereupon a field mechanic struck him.

The summons, it was understood today, was in an action of a clipping bureau which supplied clippings to Lindbergh's mother in Detroit. Lindbergh is understood to have engaged the bureau to supply clips on his New York to Paris flight. These were sent to his mother. The bureau maintains, it is understood, that the clips were continued whereas a representative of Lindbergh says that the service was ordered cancelled.

$400,000 FOR FLOOD CONTROL IN S. A. BASIN

Governor Rolph Signs Bills Appropriating Total of $1,000,000

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—(UP)—A total of $1,000,000 in state funds will be available for flood control work in Southern California as the result of favorable action taken by Governor Rolph on two bills.

Climaxing a bitter hearing featured by a split between the governor and Rolfand A. Vandegrift, state director of finance, Rolph yesterday signed the bills giving $600,000 to the Los Angeles flood control district and $400,000 for flood control work in the Santa Ana river basin.

Pointing out that the state's surplus already was below the $15,000,000 "safety mark," Vandegrift recommended that the Los Angeles bill be cut to $400,000 and the Santa Ana appropriation to $250,000.

This move was strongly opposed by Senators H. J. Evans and J. W. McKinley, Los Angeles, who led a delegation to Sacramento to attend the hearing on the measures. They attacked Vandegrift for his stand after assertedly having promised to support the bills.

Vandegrift denied having ever approved any specific amount. He claimed he was recommending similar reductions in other special appropriation bills, and warned the governor that their approval might necessitate a raise in taxes.

Rolph, however, believed the measures provide a "step towards the solution of the state water problem," and affixed his signature with the hope Vandegrift "would concur." The finance director stood pat in his lone opposition.

"We'll get the money some place," was Governor Rolph's only answer to Vandegrift's arguments.

COMMUNISTS STAGE RIOTS IN NORWAY

OSLO, Norway, June 9.—(UP)—Troops reinforced police at Menstad today after serious rioting at the docks, said to have been instigated by Communists.

Disturbances also occurred in Oslo, where four policemen were seriously injured in a clash with 500 Communists.

CONFLICT BETWEEN VATICAN AND ROME IS NEARING END

PROSECUTION IN PANTAGES CASE SWITCHES

Investigator For Fitts Is Not Recalled to Stand This Morning

SAN DIEGO, June 9.—(UP)—A sudden switch in prosecution plans kept the testimony of Leslie White, investigator for District Attorney Buren Fitts of Los Angeles, from the record of the trial of Alexander Pantages and three others today.

White had mounted the witness stand to testify to asserted confessions given him by Olive Clark Day and William Jobelmann, when he was recalled by District Attorney Thomas Whelan.

The confessions purportedly were given him in detailing the San Diego party which resulted in charges of contributing to the delinquency of minors being placed against Jobelmann, Mrs. Day, Pantages and Jesse H. Shreve.

Instead, Mrs. Laura Abbott, telephone operator at El Cortez hotel was sent to the stand to testify to telephone conversations she had overheard between Mrs. Day and Shreve and Mrs. Day and Jobelmann.

Mrs. Abbott said it was not customary for her to listen in on telephone calls, but she was instructed to do so in this case by the hotel manager.

"On the night of October 30, I listened to a call from Mrs. Day's room to the Waldorf hotel," Mrs. Abbott said. Jobelmann was staying at the Waldorf.

"The woman's voice said: 'I've just bought some new underwear for the girl, and she looks pretty nice now.'"

"The man's voice said: 'Let me know how things go.'"

"The next day, there was a call from Mrs. Day's room to the office of the Pantages-Shreve corporation, apparently to Mr. Shreve. The man said: 'You'd better go back to Los Angeles now. I've just talked to J. P. and he thinks it would be best.'"

The state contends the "J. P." referred to was John P. Mills, once a defendant in the trial.

When just before the noon recess was still undecided if he would put White on the stand again.

Rolph, however, believed the measures provide a "step towards the solution of the state water problem," and affixed his signature with the hope Vandegrift "would concur." The finance director stood pat in his lone opposition.

"We'll get the money some place," was Governor Rolph's only answer to Vandegrift's arguments.

Officials of the castle said the president's sons, Fernando and Guillermo, probably would have been in the same automobile except that the president, learning of their intention to motor home, cabled them forbidding the plan. The boys then decided to spend their summer vacation in New York, where they notified their father by wire that they intended to seek employment with a telephone company to study engineering.

They'll Save Hide, Horns Of Next Cow

EL CAJON, Calif., June 9.—(UP)—When John and Laurence Aguilar and Paul and Pearl Browning butchered a cow here recently, they neglected to save the hide and horns.

Thursday they will go to trial under a musty law passed in the days of cattle rustling for their neglect to save the hide.

Deputy Sheriff J. L. Tillery caused their arrest when he claimed the four had stolen the cow, but for lack of evidence the case was thrown out of court.

Undaunted by the ruling, Tillery delved into old tomes and found the law which made it a misdemeanor to dispose of the hide and horns of butchered cattle until they had been shown to a brand inspector.

CLARA BOW IS RELEASED BY FILM CONCERN

Paramount Publix Corporation Cancels Contract at Girl's Request

HOLLYWOOD, June 9.—(UP)—The long association of Clara Bow, red haired "It" girl of the films, and the Paramount-Publix corporation has ended.

A formal statement was issued last night by B. P. Schulberg, general manager of west coast production for Paramount-Publix, in which he said Miss Bow had been released from her contract at her own request.

Miss Bow, a Brooklyn girl who rose to a position on the screen where she typified the American flapper, had been forced by ill health to remain away from the studio for several weeks. Court

14 INJURED WHEN GRANDSTAND FALLS

GARY, Ind., June 9.—(UP)—The collapse of a grandstand which plunged 500 persons into a tangled, screaming mass, brought an unexpected climax to the historical pageant marking the close of Gary's jubilee celebration of 25 years of Rapid growth.

Fourteen persons were injured seriously, many of them suffering broken legs, when the temporary grandstand collapsed last night at the height of the outdoor show which 25,000 persons had gathered to see. At least 35 others suffered cuts and bruises.

Ambulances were ordered, but all roads leading to the park were blocked by traffic and it was half an hour before any of the injured were removed. Meanwhile, the pageant, in which more than 2000 persons took part, was concluded. Thousands of persons in other parts of the park did not know until hours later of the accident.

MAYORS GUESTS OF PRESIDENT TODAY

PARIS, June 9.—(UP)—The American mayors were to be received by President Gaston Doumergue at the Elysee palace today as one of the final official calls during their tour of France.

GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE IS CLEARED TODAY

House of Representatives Quashing All Impeachment Charges

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 9.—(UP)—Governor Henry H. Horton was cleared of all impeachment charges today when the Tennessee house of representatives voted to quash the remaining seven articles of eight returned by an investigating committee.

The first, charging he conspired with Col. Luke Lea, newspaper publisher, and Rogers Caldwell, financier, to defraud the state and to perpetuate himself in office, was defeated last week by the house.

The remaining articles were grouped and voted on all together. Fifty-six votes were cast in favor of dismissal and 40 for the articles.

There are 99 members of the house, and a majority vote was necessary for impeachment. Three legislators did not vote.

Today's action had been expected due to defeat of the first and major article last week. Those voted on today were based almost entirely on blanket charges contained in the first article.

Horton had been under fire in connection with tie-up of millions of state funds in banks controlled by Caldwell that failed last fall.

RIOTING RESUMED BY SANTIAGO MOBS

HAVANA, Cuba, June 9.—(UP)—A recurrence of rioting among unemployed in Santiago spread uneasiness through the eastern end of Cuba again today.

Hundreds of unemployed rushed through the streets last night. They sought to hold a great mass meeting and later to parade through the main thoroughfares of Santiago, capital of the province of that name.

Soldiers, seeking to maintain order since the outbreak last Saturday, charged the mob. The troops opened fire when the demonstrators refused to disband. The reports gave meager details of casualties. Two men, badly wounded, were picked up on the streets after the clash.

FATHER AND SON IN SUICIDE PACT

HEALDSBURG, Calif., June 9.—(UP)—Henry S. Goddard, 54, and his son, Sam Goddard, 63, chose death together rather than separation, authorities determined today after an inquiry into the double suicide.

The bodies of the men were found in their automobile here. Carbon monoxide, piped through hose from the exhaust, had caused their death.

Neighbors said the father had been seriously ill and that his son had become frantic from worry. The Goddards came here from Kansas several years ago.

Reply Sent Pope From Government

Diplomatic Relations 'Are Resumed With Indications of Peace

ROME, June 9.—(UP)—The conflict between the Vatican and the Italian government, which for a time threatened to disrupt the peace recently reached after a breach of 60 years, was on the road to settlement today.

Diplomatic relations were resumed when Count Cesare de Vecchi, Italian ambassador to the Holy See, called at the Vatican and presented the government's reply to the Pope's third note of protest. Both the Vatican and the government showed undisguised optimism, although the contents of the note were not revealed.

It was understood the pope had asked that the recent events be reported and requested property damages.

An agreement in principle has been reached, it was disclosed, but it was understood several details remained to be worked out. Both the Vatican and Italy were showing a conciliatory attitude to clear the entire situation before June 21, so the pope may send a papal legate to the septennial anniversary of the death of St. Anthony. The celebration is intended to be an occasion of great rejoicing over the conclusion of the Italian-Vatican accord.

The Holy See was understood to have asked, in addition to moral reparations in the form of a deploration, slight material reparations for damage to several Catholic clubs and associations at Parma, Venice, Rome and Milan, aggregation less than 500,000 lire ($26,150), which Italy will readily agree to settle.

It was not divulged as to what form Italy's reply to the pope's demand for a deploration would take, but it was understood that the pope's insistence that reparations be expressed formally, and the Italian determination to insist that all police measures had been taken as soon as the manifestations started, now seemed smoothed by each admitting extenuating circumstances.

AGED DRIVER DIES AS TRUCK HITS CAR

FRESNO, Calif., June 9.—(UP)—An attempt of an 86-year-old motorist to enter a service station by crossing in front of traffic cost him his life here late yesterday.

The victim was Peter Madsen, 86, pioneer rancher. He died a few hours after his light coupe was struck almost head-on by a grain truck driven by V. W. Haslan, of Fowler, as Madsen was about to enter a service station near his home at 4325 Ventura avenue.

BEVERLY HILLS, June 9.—[To the Editor of The Register:] The government floated another $800,000,000 loan the other day and Al Capone took most of it himself. There is the guy that should be Secretary of the Treasury. Just turn him over the country and split the profits with him.

I see in today's statistics of what the soldiers have done with late bonus money that a big item is second-hand cars. Sorry to hear that—we haven't got twenty men in America that are well enough off to support one.

ROLPH PARDONS PASADENA BOY THIS MORNING

Youth Convicted on Manslaughter to Be Released June 19

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—(UP)—Governor Rolph today granted pardon to Fayette D. Marble, 21, Pasadena, sentenced to serve from one to 10 years for manslaughter in connection with the death of three persons struck down by the youth's automobile last December on Pasadena avenue, Los Angeles.

The governor's action was taken upon the recommendation of a large number of prominent California citizens, including Dan O'Brien, director of penology; nine members of the jury which convicted Marble, relatives of the victims and the following:

Carl May, Los Angeles county probation officer; John C. Austin, president Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; George L. Eastman, former president Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce; Charles H. Kelly, Pasadena chief of police; Charles W. Fricke, superior judge, Los Angeles; R. Stanley Dollar, steamship magnate; Gurney E. Newlin, former president American Bar association; Judge Louis W. Meyer, former supreme justice; Stuart Omleney, banker; John C. McKim, attorney; the Rev. C. Rankin Banes, rector of the St. John's Episcopal church of South Pasadena, and Frank B. Higgins, chief of police of South Pasadena.

The pardon will go into effect June 19, at which time Marble will have served 90 days in the Los Angeles county jail. He is the son of William Carey Marble, Pasadena millionaire and president of the John M. C. Marble company of Pasadena.

The victims of the accident were Mrs. Ermina B. Johnson, S. O. Cooper and Mrs. Leah Cooper. "I have been advised," the Governor said, "that proper restitution has been made to relatives of the deceased and feel that the ends of justice have been satisfied, the defendant sufficiently punished by incarceration in the county jail and that further imprisonment would neither help the defendant, the victims nor their relatives. Therefore, I will grant a full pardon upon expiration of 90 days in the county jail, ten days from now."

The occasion was the Fifth Annual Trade show and the seventh annual convention of the Radio Manufacturers association. Twenty-five thousand dealers and manufacturers are here to explain their exhibits. President Morris McCall, Springfield, Mass., is in personal charge.

FORMER DRY HEAD MAKES ACCUSATIONS

Assistant Head of Treasury in Charge of Prohibition Is Defendant

HOOVER IS INFORMED

Charges Say Official Ordered Campbell to Cease Keeping N. Y. Too Dry

NEW YORK, June 9.—(UP)—Major Maurice Campbell, former prohibition administrator for this district, announced today that he had filed specific charges with President Hoover against Seymour P. Lowman, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition activities.

Campbell, now editor of the magazine "Repeal," said his charges are based largely on data contained in a series of articles written by him and published in the late New York World soon after he retired as prohibition administrator.

One of the chief charges Campbell makes is that Lowman, before witnesses, commanded him in August and September, 1928, to cease his vigilance in the supervision of certain New York breweries, and informed him he was keeping New York City too dry.

The former prohibition administrator in revealing his communication to the president, also made public Mr. Hoover's reply and the reply from Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon, to whom the charges were referred.

In 1928 prohibition enforcement was almost entirely in Lowman's supervision. Since then, most of the enforcement has been transferred from the treasury to the department of justice.

WHEAT HARVESTING STARTS IN TEXAS

DALLAS, Texas, June 9.—(UP)—Central Texas farmers this week began to harvest what government and private authorities agree is the largest wheat crop in the history of the United States. Next week the harvest will begin in North Texas. Around June 30 it will be under way in the Texas panhandle, Oklahoma and southern Kansas.

The Texas wheat crop will be around 41,000,000 bushels, with from 30 million to 35 million bushels from the plains of the panhandle. Yield per acre this year is the greatest in 20 years.

SUSPECTED LIQUOR RUNNER SHOT DOWN

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 9.—(UP)—Donald Tremont, 30, of Riches, was shot and killed today near Berch Lake after abandoning an automobile, which the officers said, contained a load of liquor.

Inspectors Harold Markham and Pearl Leavy said they had been watching for the automobile, to come through from Fisher's Landing, and when it did, they pursued Tremont for four miles.

Tremont abandoned his car, they said, and ran through a field for 500 yards before he was shot down.

School Trustees' Action In Firing Teachers Invalid

SACRAMENTO, June 9.—(UP)—The practice of "firing" and "rehiring" teachers to evade the terms of the state teachers' tenure law is invalid, according to a ruling of U. S. Webb, attorney general.

Webb's opinion was asked on an automobile, which the officers said, contained a load of liquor.

County Receives $137,306 From State Gas Taxes

SUPERVISORS ALLOT CASH TO HIGHWAY FUNDS

Orange county's road building fund received additional reinforcement this week when a check for $137,306.76 was received from State Controller Ray L. Riley. This amount was the county's share in the apportionment of $5,707,120.39 in gasoline taxes according to county Auditor W. T. Lambert. The entire state apportionment for the six-month period ending March 31 amounted to $17,121,261.16 showing a gain of $335,093.17 over a similar period last year.

The money received by Orange county has been placed in the county road fund to be distributed by supervisors districts at the discretion of the county supervisors. A portion of the money already has been set aside for the Ortega highway project.

Division of the gasoline tax money by the state is a three-way proposition with the 58 counties receiving one third of the total. The remainder is equally divided for the construction of new highways and the maintenance of others by the state division of highways.

Under the plan adopted by the 1929 legislature, no county shall receive less than $20,000 per year out of the tax fund. Inasmuch as the money is allocated on a basis of automobile registration, many of the smaller counties would receive only a few hundred dollars each year, permitting virtually no road work, had this provision not been made.

Sears-Roebuck Leaders Visit Store In S. A.

Officials of the Sears-Roebuck organization were in Santa Ana yesterday on a tour of inspection of stores owned by the company, according to W. L. Dretzler, manager of the local store. ## Would Substitute Signal For Gate

A plan whereby gates across the Santa Fe railroad tracks would be eliminated and wig-wag signals installed instead, was shown the city council last night by Edward Wynans, signal engineer for this district. Wynans claimed that the wig-wags would be of better service.

The council did not take any action on the plan. Councilmen Warner and Hassenjaeger were appointed as a committee to make an investigation.

Wynans told the council that signals were more reliable than a man operated device, according to the records of the Santa Fe railroad.

appearances and an attack on her by a tabloid newspaper were said to have undermined her health.

In a statement issued through the studio, Miss Bow expressed gratification that the contract had been terminated and said that she now can face the task of regaining her health with a free mind.

"In accordance with Clara's wishes, we have consented to tear up her contract with Paramount," Shulberg said in a statement. "The company realizes that the responsibilities of her contract have been hindering her, to a certain extent, in her fight for health."

"It is not easy to discard an association of so many years, particularly with one who has earned our personal liking and admiration. We finally came to the conclusion that her best interests would be served if our consent was given to the cancellation of our mutual agreement. I am sorry to see her leave Paramount."

Miss Bow joined Paramount in 1925. Shulberg brought her to the studio when he became associate producer.

She assertedly lost $12,500 gambling at Calneva, Nevada, and refused to pay. Daisy DeVoe, her secretary, was convicted of theft at a trial in which the presiding judge said that the testimony had diverted the case into "a trial of Miss Bow's mode of living and must be stopped."

Her present illness was ascribed to these incidents together with the recent attack upon her by a tabloid newspaper published by Frederic H. Gilman. She entered a private sanitarium in Glendale shortly after Gilman had been held for trial on a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. She was released from the sanitarium a few weeks ago. According to studio officials she intends to take a long rest on the ranch of Rex Bell, actor and close friend.

ONE ARRESTED, FIVE INJURED IN ACCIDENTS

Five persons were injured, one man was arrested and three automobiles were badly damaged as the result of two spectacular automobile crashes reported in the county yesterday.

M. O. Fitzgerald, of the Hotel Commerce, San Francisco, was arrested on the Serra Front yesterday afternoon after his car had crashed into the rear of a machine driven by Mrs. W. L. Heater, of 515 North Begerly boulevard, Los Angeles, careened off and struck State Traffic Officer Ray Bradford's motorcycle and then stopped in a ditch.

William Ashley, 57, of Serra, a flagman for a construction company working on the road at that point, and Thomas Owens, of 521 East Pine street, Santa Ana, another flagman, were painfully cut and bruised when the motorcycle fell on them after being hit by the car. Bradford at the time was standing in the center of the road guiding traffic through the stretch of road being repaired. The injured men were taken to San Juan Capistrano for medical aid.

No one in the Heater machine was reported hurt. Fitzgerald was arrested by Officer Bradford and taken to San Juan Capistrano, where he was arraigned on a driving drunk charge and then brought to the county jail. His hearing was set for Thursday morning and he

Important Considerations for Home Buyers and Home Builders

IN THE Building-Loan business the CHARACTER of loans made is the prime factor of SECURITY for INVESTORS and PROFITS for STOCKHOLDERS, and as at least 90% of our loans are made to enable people to buy or build homes, enlightened selfishness impels us, (for our own protection) to afford our borrowers every possible protection. Therefore, we say to all prospective home owners (and we see to it as to those homes on which we make loans) be sure of these points:—

1. That you get a good, legal marketable title to the land and building, properly guaranteed as such.
2. That you have an insurance policy covering the house against loss by fire.
3. That transportation to and from business and town is satisfactory and that it is as represented at all seasons.
4. That the mortgage is held by a person or company who, when it comes due and you have met all interest and amortization payments, will not call the loan or charge you a big fee for renewal. If the mortgage is due in less than two years—perhaps it is best to do it anyway—get a statement in writing that it will be renewed provided that its conditions have been met and the neighborhood has not deteriorated. This is very important.

We shall be glad at all times to consult with home buyers and home builders, whether our customers or not, and give them the benefit of our experience.

If you have funds for investment, we recommend the purchase of our 6% certificates, on which we pay you interest twice a year.

REMEMBER, this is a LOCAL BUILDING-LOAN ASSOCIATION, owned, controlled and managed by Santa Ana people that you know.

S. A. FIRM TO WIN EQUIPMENT ORDER

With a difference of only two cents between the two low bids on steel filling equipment for the county's clerk's and county treasurer's offices, probabilities are that this contract will be given to a Santa Ana firm, which was the second low bidder, as revealed when bids were opened by the board of supervisors today.

The low bids were submitted by the R. A. Tiernan company, of Santa Ana, whose price was $1384.55, and the Steel Furniture Manufacturing company, of Baldwin Park, whose bid was $1384.53. Bids were referred to County Purchasing Agent F. W. Slabaugh and continued until next Tuesday.

Our June Policy

Nothing Down!

Equal Monthly Payments Only... Pay as You Get Paid

An offer in the spirit of the times! It will be easier to set apart a certain small amount each month than to accumulate a stipulated down payment. During June any purchase can be made by sincere people with no payment down. Just a simple division of the purchase price into equal monthly payments. Maybe this will enable you to buy the things you need, or to renew certain pieces of furniture in your home. The offer applies to any purchase of any size. Here are examples of payments on $25 to $200—other amounts in proportion:

$2 a month on $25 worth of furnishings	$8 a month on $100 worth of furnishings
$4 a month pays for a $50 purchase	$12 a month pays for a $150 purchase
$6 a month buys $75 worth of furnishings	$16 a month buys $200 worth of furnishings

SPENDING OF PUBLIC MONEY WHILE UNEMPLOYED PERSONS ARE HUNGRY CALLED UNWISE

Decrying the expenditure of public money as unwise while citizens walk the streets of Santa Ana hungry, and in some cases, homeless, A. G. Diehl, a committee chairman of the Good Government League, appeared before the city council last night and in no uncertain tones protested the city turning over $8422 from its advertising funds to the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce.

Stressing the necessity for economy and retrenchment in expenditures, Diehl, speaking for the league, opposed the granting of appropriations asked by the chamber and declared the voters elected the board of trustees to manage city affairs but they did not elect the finance and budget committee of the chamber of commerce.

"It is unwise," said Diehl, "to delegate the spending of public money to any but properly constituted public officials."

"When a taxpayer can't buy necessities for his own children, can he look with favor upon spending $500 for 'special convention' buttons, and ribbons from the tax funds, as asked by the chamber of commerce. Surely you cannot agree that 'badges, buttons and ribbons' to the extent of $500 is a legitimate public expenditure under present conditions when so many hundreds of our people are in want."

Diehl sarcastically, and in some cases heatedly, took up each one of the 17 items of expenditure noted in the chamber committee request for funds.

Charges Made

The league's protest was tantamount to charges that the fire insurance men are sponsors of National Fire Week for which the chamber seeks $130 for prizes; that clean-up and paint-up week campaign for which the chamber asked $160 was organized and promoted to help the paint stores sell more paint.

"Nine hundred dollars is asked by the chamber," said Diehl, "for the use of the industrial department for general expense for making industrial surveys and advertising incident to securing new industries for the city of Santa Ana."

"This might look worth while, if we didn't have so many empty factory buildings here already and such a dearth of 'new industries' as a result of the chamber's past efforts."

Diehl referred to the request of the finance and budget committee of the chamber of commerce as a raid on the city treasury and reiterated that the public did not elect these men, or any others in the chamber of commerce, to spend city tax funds, and will look only to their regularly elected trustees as responsible for city funds.

Lucien Sweet, a tax payer in Santa Ana for the last 20 years added his voice to the protest initiated by the league.

"Tough Year Ahead"

"Where are we going to get our tax money next year?" he asked. Heretofore half of our tax money has come from the oil industry in Orange county, but with production curtailed it's going to be a tough year. People are coming to me every day ready and willing to work for $2 and even $1.50 a day. They are in need, they are hungry and many are homeless. Some of the applicants don't even ask what pay they will get, they just want work.

"We haven't any money in the city treasury to give way."

"Let's be careful in the expenditures of our money this year. It's your duty as duly elected guardians of the city funds to be careful."

Following Sweet's talk the council voted unanimously to refer the matter to the finance committee of the city council for action.

The formal protest of the Good Government league as presented by Diehl follows:

Formal Protest

"It has come to our attention that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce is requesting appropriations of city tax money totaling $8,422.00 for the ensuing year."

"Believing that such appropriations would be unwise from the average taxpayers' point of view and realizing the public demand for economy and retrenchment in expenditures as shown by their votes in the recent election, we wish to go on record as opposed to granting the appropriations asked for, and in favor of a wise economy program on the part of your city administration."

"The taxpayers of Santa Ana elected you members of the board of trustees to manage city affairs and expend the tax money of the city. They did not elect the 'Finance and Budget Committee,' or any other committee, of the Chamber of Commerce, and we respectfully submit that it is unwise to delegate the spending of public money to any but properly constituted public officials."

"We are informed the Chamber of Commerce has approximately 500 members, representing the business, financial, and professional interests of the city, and well able to finance their own interests and enterprises without delving into the tax fund, which is largely paid by small home owners, some of whom are without work and hardly able to buy food for their families."

"When a taxpayer can't buy necessities for his own children, can he look with favor upon spending $500 for 'special convention' badges, buttons, and ribbons' from the tax funds, as asked by the Chamber of Commerce? Surely you cannot agree that 'badges, buttons and ribbons' to the extent of $500 is a legitimate public expenditure under present conditions when so many hundreds of our people are in want."

"The Chamber of Commerce wants to spend $250 of city tax money for 'making display at the California Valencia Orange Show and Fair, amplifying Santa Ana's commercial and educational institutions,' when the Anaheim show has already received $7000 of county tax funds, and there is not even a Santa Ana representative on the board of managers. Surely your board cannot agree to such a proposal as this!"

"The further sum of $750 is asked by the Chamber of Commerce for 'making exhibit at the California Orange Show to be held in the auditorium in the city of Chicago during the two weeks of March, 1932.' Too many Chicago people are already drifting into Southern California and we can't believe Santa Ana taxpayers would welcome such an expenditure to tell more of them about our riches and our wonderful climate."

"One hundred and thirty dollars is asked for 'prizes in observance of National Fire week contest.' If the fire insurance men are the ones to profit, let them buy their own prizes without tapping the public till."

"Another hundred and sixty dollars is sought for 'clean-up and paint-up campaign,' which was organized and promoted to help the paint stores sell more paint, and should be financed by them. Why should we pay 150 per cent to help the paint stores sell us more paint? That's their job, not ours."

"Why Weather Bureau?"

"Then we find an item in the Chamber of Commerce request which says $385 for 'installation of Santa Ana Weather bureau station instruments and maintenance.' What the taxpayers want to know is, will this three-hundred-fifty-five give us any more, or any better weather, than we now have? Unless it will give us more rain, we are opposed to this item, for we already have more weather bureau rain gauges than we have rainfall to put in them."

"You are asked to appropriate $250 for 'Aviation Department of the Chamber of Commerce in assisting the development of aviation in Santa Ana, in co-operation with the Aviation Department of the California State Chamber of Commerce and in conjunction with the U. S. Air Mail Service.' We don't know what that means, but we are opposed to subsidizing an aviation department in the Chamber of Commerce. It doesn't need it."

"Item No. 8 in the list of Chamber of Commerce wants is the following: 'Nine hundred dollars for the use of the Industrial Department for general expense for making industrial surveys and advertising incident to securing new industries for the city of Santa Ana.' This might look worth while, if we didn't have so many empty factory buildings here already and such a dearth of 'new industries' as a result of the chamber's past efforts."

"Item No. 9 is $130 for 5000

'Key to Santa Ana,' including cover. Are these 5000 'keys' to Santa Ana's purse, or what?"

"Item No. 10 is $112 for '5000 2-color soil and oil production sheets.' Can't the oil companies buy them?"

"Item No. 11 is $700 for 'printing circulars, folders, and 4-page leaflets, etc.' The next is $535 for 'half-tones, etchings, photos, and art work,' presumably for the above folders and leaflets. The next is $750 for 15,000 4-color Santa Ana booklets. This total is $1975 for pretty booklets, and then we are asked for $1235 more for postage to mail them out to Chicago and other points east, north and south."

"Groaning Taxpayer"

"The groaning taxpayer, represented by your honorable board, is the asked for $400 for 'special advertising by contact with special delegations from Santa Ana to various conventions.' The meaning is not clear, but it is presumed these 'special delegations' from Santa Ana are good advertisements for the community and thus worth $400 of the taxpayers' money."

"Five hundred and sixty-five dollars is asked for 'general newspaper and magazine advertising.' This amounts to but eight per cent of the total asked for from the city's advertising fund and is probably the most legitimate proposed expenditures of the bunch."

"Wishing to bring the total up to city appropriations of the past four years, and having no other items in mind, the Chamber of Commerce closes its plea by asking for five hundred dollars as an 'emergency fund such as demands for many extra items coming up during the fiscal year ending July 1, 1932.' Total asked for $8,422."

"The request for this raid on the city treasury is signed by members of the 'Finance and Budget committee' of the Chamber of Commerce, including Chas. L. Colant and Frank Waa, bankers; Earl S. Morrow, telephone company manager; Charles E. Rutledge, gas company manager; Dr. P. W. Slabaugh, county purchasing agent; Wm. C. Jerome, former county auditor; Frank L. Purinton, former mayor of Santa Ana; and Franklin G. West, attorney."

"Let us reiterate that the public did not elect these men or any others in the Chamber of Commerce to spend city tax funds, and will look only to their regularly elected trustees as responsible for city funds."

Run By Group

"The Chamber of Commerce is a worthy organization. Yet it is run by a small group primarily for the benefit of that group, including bankers, real estate men, and business houses, and we contend should not receive the $8,422 asked for, to spend as they please, and without itemized bills for same."

"The purchase of food for the hungry by public funds is frowned on as unbusinesslike or as 'class legislation.' Then why should public funds be used to help bankers, real estate men, and business houses, who are much more able to conduct their own affairs than the hungry ones? Wouldn't this be worse 'class legislation' than giving food, clothing, and shelter to the needy?"

"Santa Ana voters have shown that they want economy in our city government, and reduction of taxes if possible. If it is necessary to raise an advertising fund from taxes, let it be spent and administered by the city, and not by the Chamber of Commerce or any other private organization, and let it be spent for real advertising of value to taxpayers, and not dissipated through convention buttons, weather stations, Chicago exhibits, and emergencies."

Respectfully submitted,

"GOOD GOVERNMENT AND ECONOMY LEAGUE."

A. G. Diehl, Committee Chairman."

AIR SAFETY CONFAB

NEW YORK, June 8.—To increase the safety of airplane operation and protect the lives of air passengers, the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce has formed an Aviation Safety Conference. The duties of this body will be to gather facts and test appliances designed to promote air safety. An air safety code will be worked out by the body.

Seek Changes In Names of Streets

Petitions signed by property owners along Stafford and Vance streets, in the northeastern section of the city, last night asked the city council to change the names of the streets to Eighth street for Stafford street, and Ninth street for Vance street.

The petitions were referred to the street commissioner, who will make an investigation before again bringing the matter before the city board.

The petitioners stated that they believe that a change of names would aid the general public in locating the streets.

RABIES SITUATION IMPROVEMENT SEEN

The rabies situation in Orange county is apparently greatly improved, Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, declared today.

There has been no case of rabies reported so far this month and there were but three cases last month. The rabies epidemic in this county began a year ago and gradually grew worse until it reached a climax in January of this year. A definite improvement was noted by health authorities at the beginning of April.

Figures on the number of dogs that have been shown to have had rabies show that contrary to common belief, rabies is not more prevalent in the summer than at any other time. In fact, the largest number of cases was found by the health department during the past winter, according to Dr. Sutherland.

PAIN IN YOUR SHOULDERS?

Use Tysmol for Relief

Knife-like jabs of pain in the vicinity of the shoulder blade are generally due to neuritis, brought on by exposure to draughts or sudden changes of weather. In some cases there is stiffness or soreness in the muscles, making it difficult to raise the arm.

The safest and easiest way to relieve such an attack is to apply a small quantity of Tysmol over the affected area. This soothing, healing preparation is quickly absorbed through the pores and carried to the throbbing aching peripheral nerves. The pains usually stop at once, and in a very short time the last trace of soreness should disappear.

Tysmol is absolutely harmless—free from dope. Recommended for all forms of nerve pain, whether caused by neuritis, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism. Sold by leading druggists. Always on hand at C. S. Kelley Drug Co.—Adv.

FLOOD CONTROL REPORT GIVEN ADDED SUPPORT

More support for the recent flood control and water conservation report submitted to the supervisors by a board of engineers headed by G. A. Elliott of San Francisco, and a suggestion for prompt action by the supervisors to the end that this work shall get under way, was presented to the board of supervisors today in a communication from Gladys Chapman and company.

The concern which brought its support to the new plan, which is characterized as being far superior to any others previously submitted, is recognized as one of the leading industrial firms in Southern California, with large property holdings and many plants, throughout the state, according to Supervisor Charles Chapman. It manufactures brick and other clay products.

Approval of the new plan and the suggestion for prompt action was contained in a letter, which carried the signature of F. B. Ortman, vice president and general manager of the concern.

PRICE OF GARBAGE WORRIES DR. PRICE

The price of pork has gone down so low and the cost of feed so high, that unless the city council can think of some way to save Dr. C. E. Price, purchaser of the city's garbage, Dr. Price is likely to go bankrupt, he told members of the board at the meeting of the council yesterday.

No definite action was taken, but the board was deeply interested—to such an extent that it—in a body—went out to Dr. Price's hog farm at the end of Fairview avenue to look over the situation.

Dr. Price gained the contract for the city's garbage two years ago, on a 10-year contract. He paid the city $450 per month for it, but at the time he purchased it, pork was selling for 14 cents per pound, instead of 7 cents as it is today, he told the council, and as a result he has found himself in the "hole." He wanted to know if the council couldn't relieve him in some way.

It also was brought out that Dr. Price receives from eight to 12 tons of garbage per day from the city and that he has some 1200 hogs that eat it.

PROPERTY OWNERS HOPE FOR TAX CUT AS TIME ARRIVES FOR COUNTY BUDGET ACTION

With the time at hand for submitting the annual requests for funds required in the county budget for the ensuing year, taxpayers in all sections of the county are keeping a watchful eye on the activities of bodies which are charged with raising and spending public taxes, it is understood, in an effort to see that every possible step is taken to cut expenses this year without crippling necessary activities of government.

Taxpayers see some hope in the fact that there has been a general reduction of 10 per cent in assessed valuations and are hoping that tax fixing bodies will follow in this trend toward reduction. Rejoicing in the fact that the county board of supervisors followed the recent announcement that a cut of 31 cents in the high school tax rate had been made by the board in the face of the reduction of assessed values. This also has been taken in some quarters as an indication that reductions can be made if necessary.

Budget blanks have been submitted by County Auditor W. T. Lambert to various special districts throughout the county, such as lighting, water, cemetery and other districts on which they are to set up the requirements for the fiscal year 1931-32. The staff of Lambert's office is now completing tabulation of expenses for the past 12 months, which also will be sent to all departments and districts for their guidance in determining the amounts required for operation next year.

June 10 is the deadline set by Auditor Lambert when the budget blanks have to be in the hands of all departments, together with a tabulation of expenses of that department for the past 12 months, including the previous year and the past 12 months of the present year. Budget blanks as prescribed by the state are required to be filled with the auditor by July 10, by all heads of departments, offices, and services or institutions of the county. These shall include a detailed estimate of revenue other than that to be derived from taxes which the department, or district or office anticipates, and a detailed estimate of expense for the coming year.

These budget estimates are required to be tabulated by the auditor and submitted to the supervisors for their consideration and revision, if required, by July 30. August 10 is the date set by state law when copies of the budget requests for the ensuing year must be printed or mimeographed in full in pamphlet form and ready for distribution to any tax payer who desires the same.

August 10 is also the date when the supervisors are required to publish notice that the budget booklet is available and is also the date when they must announce the time and place of budget hearings. Hearings are had that taxpayers may have an opportunity to object to any portions of the budget and ask that it be changed.

The board is given until August 20 to open the hearings, and the law specifies that on or before that date the board shall meet in open budget hearings, which shall be continued from day to day until concluded, not exceeding 10 days, however.

On or before August 20, on the conclusion of the budget hearings, the supervisors shall adopt the budget according to law and the date for fixing the tax rate is set for September 1, when the county and district taxes are required to be determined by the board.

Taxpayers in some sections of the county, it is reported, are planning to seek consideration of the use of unencumbered balances of funds on hand in connection with setting the budget for the year, rather than permitting these balances to accrue as reserve funds as it is understood has sometimes been the case in the past.

CITY COUNCIL VOTES TO AID PLAYGROUNDS

The Santa Ana city council last night voted $2000 of the city's general fund, as its share for the opening and operating of 10 school playgrounds in Santa Ana during the summer months of vacation.

The money was allowed at the request of members of the Santa Ana board of education, who appeared before the afternoon session of the council, at which time they asked that $2000 be donated to pay the summer expenses, stating that the board of education would allot a similar amount for the work.

Last year, it was brought out, there were seven school playgrounds open to the children and the response was more than gratifying, according to President George Wells, of the school board, who with members M. B. Youel and W. Maxwell Burke and Business Manager George Newcomb appeared before the council.

It cost the city and the board of education $3000 last year to operate the seven school playgrounds, and the estimate for this year with 10 schools opened, was set at $4000.

Of this amount $2625 was allotted to salaries for 20 playground leaders at the various schools, $315 for two wood shop instructors; $250 for salary for a director for all the playgrounds; $250 for supplies; $50 salary for errand boy; $157 for salaries for music instructors; $30 for advertising and $222.50 to create an emergency fund.

Councilman J. L. McBride stated that last year he was on the council's committee working with the school board committee and that in his opinion "We get a bigger run for our money in an enterprise of this kind than in any other way." He stated that he had no doubt that the opening of the summer playgrounds was a big aid to the children, that it saved many from becoming delinquent and that the work as a whole was praiseworthy in every respect.

"It is one of the most important things the council can do, and personally I will vote for it a long time before I will many other things that come up," McBride stated.

With the addition of three extra playgrounds for children this summer, it will be possible, it was pointed out, to have one of the grounds for Mexican children.

The three additional school playgrounds will be so located as to take the strain away from a number of the grounds that were crowded last year, it was said, and at the same time will be located not too far away from the homes of a number of children who last year found it too far to walk each day. Both members of the school board and McBride agreed that there were not enough playground facilities last year.

Gloryetta, California,
June 11, 1931.

Homage to the Teachers of Education:

In view of the vacations that the honorable teachers who impart primary education in this place, will have, the parents of families and others of the Mexican colony are proud to render affectionate homage on the departure of the mentors of childhood in proof of appreciation of their arduous labors in behalf of Mexican children.

We admire this great North American country for its culture, riches, and administration of government because we see that the people of the United States know how to elect their mandates.

We have the illustrious superintendent of education in Orange county, Ray Addison, and J. A. Cranston, superintendent of the Santa Ana schools, who have known how to select their cultural collaborators such as is directress, Mrs. M. Fannie Brazg, of the precinct of Gloryetta and the balance of the teachers that collaborate with her.

And we also have in the department of Americanization the intelligent and cultured directress of adult education in Santa Ana, Mrs. Golden Weston, and professors, Grace E. Reeves, complying with their work with imparting education to adults of both sections.

They are the instructors of childhood, those who have the great responsibility of preparing the good citizens of the future, those in charge to prepare the mistresses of the future homes, which involve delicate efforts as well as noble and generous. It is for this reason that we desire that during the summer vacation they will not encounter any disagreeable incidents and that they will return to take up their professional labors with characteristic energy.

ANNUAL CHURCH MEET REVEALS WIDE ACTIVITY

BOSTON, Mass., June 8.—Growth of the Christian Science movement throughout the world, as indicated by formation during the past year of 78 new branch church organizations, was reported here yesterday at the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Six thousand members from many nations gathered beneath the lofty church dome to hear of new publications and wider charitable and healing work.

The Mother Church now has 2519 branch churches and societies, in addition to 49 college and university organizations. For the first time Poland has a branch church. Another has been added to those already in Africa and in Asia, four more to those in Australasia, two more in South America, 45 more in North America and 25 additional in Europe outside of Poland.

Christian Science lecturers addressed total combined audiences of about 2,800,000 during the past 12 months, it was reported. In addition to the 2722 regular lectures, a number were broadcast. In the Philippine Islands, China, Japan and the West Indies, more natives than ever before are stated to have attended lectures.

Robert E. Buffum, LL. B., of Belmont, Massachusetts, was elected president of The Mother Church for the ensuing year. Edward L. Ripley of Brookline, Mass., continues as treasurer and Ezra W. Palmer, also of Brookline, as clerk. George Shaw Cook of Chicago and Mrs. Elizabeth F. Norwood of Brookline started today the last year of their three-year term as First and Second Reader, respectively.

Mr. Buffum is a native of Keene, New Hampshire, where he received his early education. He received the degree of Bachelor of Law from Boston University Law School. For many years he has been a practicing attorney in Boston, Massachusetts, and is a member of the law firm, Abbott, Dane, Buffum and Howe. He was one of the attorneys for The Christian Science Board of Directors in various lawsuits of several years ago.

In 1905 he became a member of The Mother Church and First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Cambridge, Massachusetts. In the latter church he has served as First Reader, president, member of the Board of Directors and in various other capacities.

Duncan Sinclair, retiring president, declared in introducing his successor that the growth of Christian Science depends directly upon spiritual healing in accordance with its teachings.

"Principally," he added, "the progress of our movement is determined by the growth of the spiritual understanding of Christian Scientists throughout the world—by their growth in spirituality, and their power to heal. Our church edifices and the other various material appurtenances of our movement are undoubtedly symbolical of its strength, and of the healing and regenerating work that is being done; but we do not fail to remember that it is the power to think and act rightly, to think from the standpoint of Principle and to act accordingly, that is the great essential. It inspires all our activities; it determines all our successes."

In his address, the new president sketched the work Christian Scientists may do to alleviate world unrest.

"Today all mankind needs the help which Christian Science can give for its ills and troubles," he declared. "The various theories entertained by the world with respect to health, happiness, employment, property and prosperity are experiencing radical changes and with these shifting beliefs have arisen many doubts, fears and anxieties."

"The questions which today baffles individuals and nations and which seem so peculiar to this age are really the common problems of the human race. The solution of these problems is the same now as it always has been. The way was pointed out and fully demonstrated by Christ Jesus more than nineteen centuries ago as he taught the truth of being and healed many of their sins and diseases. In giving Christian Science to the world our beloved Leader (Mary Baker Eddy) has illuminated the Word of God as contained in the sacred Scriptures, made practical the teachings and work of the Way-shower, and has demonstrated their availability and efficacy in solving all of the problems of the human race."

Roland R. Harrison, manager of The Christian Science Publishing Society, traced the progress of the society from its small, temporary quarters in 1883, to the present. Up to 1908, the society had 10 distinct domiciles, he reported. At that time, the present publishing house was built, and employees numbered 78.

"Today," Mr. Harrison continued, "we have 619 actual employees, and over 3000 other individuals actively connected with the society—advertising and circulation representatives, Monitor contributors, periodical writers, and so forth."

"In 1908 but four Christian Science periodicals were being published—the Journal with a circulation of 38,000, the Sentinel with a circulation of 66,000, the German Herald, and the Quarterly. Today, in addition to the Journal (circulation 124,000) and the Sentinel (128,000), the Herald is issued in six languages besides English—Danish, Dutch, French, German, Norwegian, and Swedish, the Scandinavian edition including three of these languages. The Herald also is printed in Braille, and the Dutch and Braille editions having been introduced during the past year."

Mr. Harrison added that Christian Science periodicals are now distributed in 51 countries outside of the United States, and that the recently announced new publishing house is necessitated by the growth in volume of publications. He contrasted the present publishing house, built in 1908 at a cost of $200,000, and later enlarged, with the new one, estimated to cost over $3,000,000.

Coincident with these reports came word from the Shawmut Realty Trust, in charge of properties bought in the vicinity of the church, that these properties, totaling approximately 283,000 square feet, or a little more than six acres of land, are now entirely free of debt. The final $970,000 was paid off during the past year. On part of this land the new publishing house will be located.

Mr. Palmer, clerk, in his statement regarding relief activities of The Mother Church, said that aid had been given through government officials in Santo Domingo at the time of the hurricane there; through representatives of the church in New Zealand at the time of the earthquake in North Island; and in Java following volcanic eruption. Other relief was administered in Italy, Germany, China, and several other countries. Drought areas in the lower Mississippi valley were visited by experienced relief workers, he added.

Editors are becoming increasingly friendly toward Christian Science and are opening their columns more freely to statements correcting misconceptions of the subject. It was reported by the Hon. C. Augustus Norwood, manager of committees on publication. "Newspaper men throughout the world," he said, "are now giving our committees weekly space in their respective papers for the publication of excerpts from our lessons—sermons. It is estimated that the number of such excerpts now published in the course of a year approaches 80,000, and much good will toward our religion is being developed through this activity."

"A review of the work of the past year could not be considered complete without some statement as to the fair and the unfriendly biographies of Mrs. Eddy which have been issued, and the great opportunity which has come to the public's notice a better understanding of Mrs. Eddy's life and work through her biography by Dr. Lyman P. Powell."

It was stated that 80,000 copies of this work have been sold to date, since its publication last fall. Hon. William W. Davis of Cambridge, executive supervisor of the two Christian Science sanatoriums and the Pleasant View home at Concord, N. H., reported as to the successful management of these three charitable institutions.

Speaking for the Christian Science board of directors, Mrs. Annie M. Knott, a member of the board and a student of Mrs. Eddy, stated that the directors had in all of their deliberations discussed matters as individuals, but had decided them as a unit. She referred to the added responsibilities and greater work which had come to the board with the growth of the Mother Church movement and commended a close relationship between The Mother Church and all of its branches and activities. She reminded the members that guidance for all Christian Scientists either in their individual work or for the government of the cause might be found in the manual of The Mother Church by Mary Baker Eddy, the one called of God to restate the Christ-healing with its boundless blessings and its unfading joys.

BALBOA BEACH SWIMMERS SAVE 340 POUND BOY

J. C. Everett, 17-year-old La Habra youth lacks just a few inches of being seven feet tall and weighs 340 pounds, clad in a bathing suit, and can generally take care of himself under any conditions or in any situation but Sunday it required the united efforts of Johnnie Callihan, Balboa lifeguard, and H. B. Thomas, Santa Ana mail carrier, to tow him ashore when a leg cramp overcame him while swimming at the foot of Fifteenth street in the Midway district.

Everett and some companions were swimming and had left the breaker line far behind when the cramp struck Everett's leg. He called for help but his companions, tiring from the strenuous pace set by him, had turned back and he was alone.

Callihan, on duty in the guard tower at Fifteenth street, saw Everett's frantic signals for help and slinging the life buoy over his shoulder, started to his assistance. Upon reaching the youth the guard found him helpless and started to bring him ashore but the near-victim's great weight and a strong undertow were too much and Callihan had to call for help.

Thomas, spending the day at the beach with his family, responded to Callihan's shouts and between them they landed Everett on the beach where, after a little first aid, he was able to navigate under his own power. According to Thomas the La Habra youth had swallowed considerable gallons of water to a 340-pound youth who stands nearly seven feet in height?

HOLD SPECIAL SERVICES FOR ANNIVERSARY

Continuing the celebration of the golden anniversary of the First Christian church in Santa Ana, which started with a banquet Friday night, special services were held at the church during the morning and evening worship hours Sunday, with former pastors occupying the pulpits.

The Rev. A. F. Roadhouse, of San Marino, preached a spirited missionary sermon yesterday morning on the subject "The Supreme Revelation," based on the text "It pleased God to reveal His Son in me."

"This is the supreme revelation, and no other is worth while unless you have that one," he asserted. "God still speaks to man, not only by His Son, but in diverse places and times, as He used to do through the prophets."

"When does God speak to us? In the great crises of life. God never robs a man of the right to decide for himself, but He never forgets to control the destiny of nations. Seven times during the battle of Waterloo there were instances of happenings which cannot be accounted for except as an act of God. God acted in the World war seven times. He used winds, storms and clouds."

"When the poison gas was first turned loose against the allies, it was set free in a wind current that through 40 years blew in a certain direction for at least 36 hours when it started. But in this instance it turned and carried the gas back on those that loosed it, killing thousands of them."

"England and America are God's covenant people. 'Brit-ish' means covenant people and 'Brit-ish' means covenant land. God is saving those who are a great missionary people. The reason He favors these two nations is that England and America send forth more missionaries than all the rest of the world combined."

"God reveals Himself time and again. He has done so in America. The reason is that this nation started with more parallels to the Bible than any other. Moses started out with 13 groups. So did America. Both had a constitution that had been ratified by the people and are the only ones that have. They are the only two that provide a foreigner shall not rule over them. Palestine and America were both set apart from all people, yet in touch with them."

"Hebrews were brought into existence for one purpose—to teach the world the religion of one God. They failed when they became reservoirs instead of conduits. Greece was brought into existence to create a universal language, that in which the New Testament is written. Rome was brought into existence so that a child could be born in Bethlehem and so great roads could be built over which the message of Christianity could be carried."

"America is in existence for a great purpose. But what are we doing? The trouble with America and her churches today is that they want to be great reservoirs to keep and hold instead of conduits to carry. We are keeping our money at home when it should be going forth. We need the missionary spirit in our churches. You will be lost if you don't send the gospel to others. That is the only thing God saved us for."

"The Jews have been greatly punished because they wanted to be reservoirs instead of conduits. They have no nation and no leadership and have been greatly persecuted. That is just what is coming to America unless we get the missionary vision and spirit."

"I plead with you young people to seek a time in life when you can say that God has revealed His Son in you. That means He will use you thereafter. There is nothing on earth that so opens the channel between God and man as a pure heart. Sin keeps a man from seeing God's eternal purpose. 'God wants a great people who will obey Him because they love Him.' 'Go ye, therefore, to the ends of the earth, teaching. Lo, I am with you always.'"

At the evening service the message was brought by the Rev. F. T. Porter, former pastor, who is now secretary of the denominational work in Southern California. There was a sacred concert by the church choir under the direction of H. P. Filer, director.

2 Laguna Boys Escape Jail For Starting Blaze

LAGUNA BEACH, June 9.—Because they notified their parents of what they had done in time to prevent a serious blaze, two young boys who started a grass fire in Bluebird canyon will not be prosecuted by Fire Chief P. J. Bushman. The state law requires that children who deliberately start fires, for which it is necessary to call the fire apparatus, shall be confined in the detention home for 30 days. Chief Bushman says that the state fire officials are very strict about the law enforcement and has issued a warning that he will not intercede in the future, no matter what excuse is given.

The fire was started on property owned by Mrs. Miriam Hedges Smith. A neighbor had left wet matches on a bench to dry. They were found by the boys, who told Mrs. Smith's daughter they were going to start the fire. The girl said she would tell her mother and declared that the boys threw rocks at her. Then she said she would not tell, fearing to be hurt. She did inform her mother, who told Chief Bushman that she saw the boys start the blaze. Before she could get the phone, the boys had run to their parents and the fire department was called. The blaze had covered a section about 20 feet square when it was extinguished.

Rehearsals For Play Started At Laguna Tonight

LAGUNA BEACH, June 9.—The first general rehearsal for "The Lagunatics," to be staged at the Community club June 19 and 20, has been called for this evening by Director Oswald Jackson. The production will have about 25 players and will be in the nature of a vaudeville show with an after-piece. Several original one-act plays written in Laguna Beach, will be produced. There will be several olio acts and a grand finale with all of the company taking part.

The clubhouse is being renovated under the direction of Hugo Lindberg, house manager, and announcement has been made that it will be opened afterwards for the use of club members and that arrangements can be made for holding bridge-teas and other social affairs.

OSCAR AND RUTH TAKE PART IN TRAVEL FROLIC TONIGHT

Climaxing three months' work over KREG, Freddie Dean and Ruth Murdoch, comedy team and continuity writers, bid farewell to local fans tonight with the presentation of "Travel Night," the fifth in a series of theme frolics presented from the local broadcasting station during the past five weeks. The pair has worked in co-operation with Ted Newcomb, KREG announcer, in presenting the present series of frolics. It is hoped to bring the popular team back to KREG in the near future. Excess of their work has been named as the reason for their withdrawal.

Tonight's fun festival, scheduled from 9 to 10:30 o'clock, is to be presented in two scenes. The first is called "Oscar's Farewell Party" when the KREG artists will bid farewell to the comedian, and second is titled "On the Train," when the entertainers will make whoop on an east bound limited. A feature of the frolic tonight will be the presentation of the most popular scenes from "College Night," "War Night," "Old Home Night" and "Mystery Night," previous KREG frolics. "Hysterical History," a comedy skit featuring Freddie, Ruth and Ted, presented over the air and on the stage recently, will be repeated by popular demand. This act is a burlesque on Paul Revere's ride and is said to be one of the best skits presented over the local station. Bob Sprowl, KREG program director, Duane Harmon, Dahl Graham, Alice Baker, Glen Rayhawk, Wilford Orr, Ethel Cortz, Ross Cortz, Maxine Ibbotson, Madge Hale, Mae Coffin, Dale Miller and other local favorites will take part in the broadcast. Tonight's frolic is another of the Orange County Valencia Orange Show and Fair broadcasts, sponsored by a group of Anaheim business and professional men.

Not all sizes have been listed—but enough to give an idea of how prices compare. And by the way, Ward's prices are even LESS when you buy in PAIRS!

Ward Tires are made by one of world's largest tire companies!

Free Mounting at Every Ward's Store

Montgomery Ward & Co. sells two qualities of tires

THE RIVERSIDE is our first quality tire

It is made by one of the largest tire companies in the world. It is built to one of the most stringent sets of specifications in the tire industry. It is one of the best known tires in America. It has been sold by Ward's for nineteen consecutive years. Millions of Riversides are in use today. It is backed by a guarantee without limit as to time or mileage.

Other fine tires equal in quality to our Riversides are Firestone High Speed, Goodyear All Weather and Goodrich Silvertown Cords... but these tires are much higher priced than Riversides. The table at the left gives you a size-for-size price comparison.

Having studied that price comparison there remains only one question for you to ask... "Are Riverside tires really as good as these other tires with which they are compared?" Well, Montgomery Ward & Co. has been in business for sixty years. It is one of the largest and oldest merchandise institutions in the world. It is the originator of the "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back" guarantee. It depends for its business not only on tires, but also on some 40,000 other items of merchandise which it wishes to sell to you. Isn't it reasonable to believe therefore that Ward's MUST be telling the truth when it makes these direct statements to you?

THE TRAIL BLAZER is our second quality tire

It is of the quality similar to such other nationally known "second-line" tires as Firestone Oldfield, Goodyear Pathfinder, and Goodrich Cavalier. And it, too, sells for LESS than other second-line tires... as the table at the lower left indicates.

This combination of quality-with-lowest-price which is offered by Ward's seems to have made some of our competitors very envious (especially Firestone dealers) so they are making and publishing misleading and inaccurate statements about "Mail Order" tires. But they do NOT compare their first quality tires with our Riversides... and their second-line tires with our Trail Blazers... for they know that to do so would immediately indicate how very much lower Ward's tires are priced. So these alarmed competitors have, cunningly enough, priced their "second-line" tires at exactly our first quality Riverside prices... and then they print incomplete comparison tables which are intended to make people believe that their prices, quality for quality, are the same as ours. Well, they are NOT! (See tables at the left.) And the chart directly below shows how Ward's Trail Blazers compare in quality as well as in price with other nationally known second-line tires. Will you please compare the specifications and the prices?

8 WAYS TO COMPARE TIRE VALUES

This Table lists the eight comparisons that were made (Six FIRSTS for Ward's Trail Blazers) And Trail Blazers are also the lowest priced.

4.50-21 Tire	Ward's Trail Blazers	Firestone Oldfield	Goodyear Pathfinder	Goodrich Cavalier

		$5.69	$5.69	$5.65

I have personally examined the specifications of the four tires described above and hereby certify that I know these specifications to be exact, accurate and devoid of prejudice.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 9th day of April, 1931 at Chicago, Ill.

HOW TO END CONSTIPATION

If you want to get rid of constipation for good, you must cleanse the liver of its stored-up bile, and get it to working right. Remember it's a torpid, lazy liver clogged with bile that keeps you constipated. This surplus bile poisons your whole system, causing headaches, bad breath, mallow skin, sour stomach, gas, indigestion, dizzy spells or other disagreeable symptoms. All that any ordinary physic does is to force a bowel movement without getting at the liver. What you really need is a thorough internal cleansing with Plantax, which brings out all the accumulated bile and other foul secretions. Plantax is a most effective liver tonic compounded from the juices or extracts of harmless plants—remedies from Nature's own laboratory. It acts in a gentle, easy way—without irritating or weakening the organs. Large bottle $1. On sale at all good drug stores.—Adv.

Miss Cruickshank To Go East

SANTA ANA NET QUEEN ENTERS BIG TOURNEYS

Expecting to participate in virtually every major tournament of the season, Josephine Cruickshank, Santa Ana tennis star, will campaign throughout the east again this summer.

She will leave here shortly after the first of July and be gone approximately two months.

Last year Miss Cruickshank left Santa Ana the tenth ranking American woman player and returned with laurels that netted her a fifth ranking position. Among other victories, the Santa Ana won the national intercollegiate singles championship without the loss of a single game and the intercollegiate doubles title with the loss of only four games.

Her first eastern competition this summer probably will be at the Longwood club in Boston. Then she will go to the tournament at the Essex Country club, Manchester, Mass. Competition at Seabright, N. J., and East Hampton, Long Island, follows the Essex play.

Miss Cruickshank is undecided about entering the annual tournament at Rye, N. Y., which comes after East Hampton in the itinerary, but is quite likely she will pass it up and conserve her energy for the National tournament which begins the following week at Forest Hills. She is also uncertain about entering the National doubles tournament at Longwood, Boston, but rather expects to compete in it.

Peterkin To Eject Botts Temporarily

President George Peterkin of the National Night Ball league announced today that, pending an investigation into the proposed transfer, he had barred from the circuit Pitcher Venn Botts of Colton, premier pitcher of the American Night league, who has been reported engaged by Fullerton.

Peterkin said Botts had not been cleared by the inland league and that in accordance with an inter-league agreement, recently ratified, he would bar Botts until Colton had given him an outright release.

Fullerton is understood to have offered the ace pitcher a job at $200 a month. Botts is now employed in the railroad yards at Colton at $135 a month.

Roy Hunt, president of the American Night league, has filed with Peterkin an official complaint against the asserted "proselyting" of talent practiced by certain National league teams.

CYRIL WALKER, M'FARLANE OUT OF TITLE GOLF

NEW YORK, June 9.—(UP)—With few notable exceptions, all golfers of renown in the United States today were among the 150 players who have qualified for the National Open Golf tournament at Toledo, O., beginning July 2.

Ninety-seven men came through in 30 district qualifying meets yesterday to earn places in the National Open while 53 players were exempt from qualifying. This latter group includes the 31 golfers who finished in the first 30 and ties at Interlachen last year; two each from France and England; one each from Germany and the Philippine Islands; and Art Straub of Bloomfield, N. J., and Tony Mansfield of New York, two United States professionals, who have been abroad.

Willie MacFarlane, who defeated Bobby Jones in the play-off for the National Open championship in 1925 and Cyril Walker, 1924 titleholder, were favorites who failed to qualify.

Whiffy Cox of Brooklyn with a card of 18 turned in the best score for the New York district.

The best score made in the qualifying tournaments was turned in by Al Espinosa of Chicago who carded a 135.

Those who qualified in California together with their scores were: At Berkeley—Harold Sampson, Burlingame, Calif., 139; Earl Fry, Alameda, Calif., 143.

At Los Angeles—Fred Morrison, Los Angeles, 151; Chet Beer, Bakersfield, Calif., 151.

CALIFORNIA SHELL SUFFERS ACCIDENT

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 9.—(UP)—The six crews already in training here for the annual Poughkeepsie regatta June 16 were scheduled for hard workouts today with the possibility that Coach "Ky" Elbright would send his University of California oarsmen through a time trial over the regular four-mile course.

California was out on the choppy Hudson twice yesterday. In the first workout the rough water swept away the washboard on the bow of the shell and although the accident was a minor one it handicapped the crew considerably.

After the sun went down, Coach Elbright brought out his crew again and had his men cover six miles.

Varner, McGough In Olympic Match

LOS ANGELES, June 9.—(UP)—Claude Varner, of Bakersfield, and Tommy McGough, local featherweight, will meet tonight in the 10-round main event of a boxing show at the Olympic. Jim Merriott and Tony Brown, heavyweights, meet in the semi-final.

SOPHOMORES SET THE PACE

NIGHT LEAGUE NOMADS MEET STARS TONIGHT

North Long Beach, homeless waif of the National Night league, opposes Santa Ana in the Bowl this evening, the contest beginning a three-game home stand for the Stars.

Marshaled by the venerable Claude Anderson to replace La Habra which abandoned its franchise at the very outset of the season, North Long Beach has accomplished wonders working against conceded disadvantages. Without home grounds or home fans, the Nomads have been playing twice a week as a traveling team and, though their modest position in the standings won't show it, have given almost every team in the league stern competition.

For instance, the Nomads held Santa Ana 4-0 the first time the clubs collided, and it will be remembered that three of the Stars' runs were palpatory unearned. Eddie Boyd, a real veteran in night ball, pitched Santa Ana's ears off that night, his smart change of pace silencing the bat of every man on the champions' squad. It is this kind of pitching that has stopped the Stars most often, and recalling what happened to Anaheim at Fullerton only last Friday, it is quite possible that North Long Beach will make things interesting for the faithful fans who went their way to the Sixth and Olive street orchard for a game which on the face of it, holds few charms.

Miss Orcutt Takes First British Tilt

PORTMARNOCK, Ireland, June 9.—(UP)—Playing on a seamy course and under intermittent showers, Miss Maureen Orcutt, Englewood, N. J., won her first round match of the British women's golf championship today, defeating Mrs. D. E. Soulbey, St. Anne's 5 and 4.

Miss Orcutt was off to a poor start. She was twice in the rough on the first hole which she lost. Her driving and putting improved, however, as the match progressed, and she was two up at the turn.

On most of the holes Miss Orcutt outdrove Mrs. Soulbey by 20 to 30 yards. Miss Orcutt's medal score was one over even fours. She will meet Miss Kathleen Garnham, prominent Essex golfer, in the second round, Wednesday.

KEPPEN, EVANS, VARNELL NAMED AS CANDIDATES

BY VINCENT MAHONEY
SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—(UP)—Going inconspicuously about his duties in some bond house or bank or newspaper office or factory in Portland, San Francisco, Seattle or Los Angeles is a man due to become very much of a public figure on the coast next year.

His identity yet unknown, he is the Keneas Mountain Landis of Pacific Intercollegiate athletics more specifically, the czar of big league football west of the Rockies.

That the office will exist and everything else except the name and salary of the office holder, was settled last week at the Pacific Coast conference meet in Portland.

Wary of constant pointless bickering over matters of eligibility, official schedules, protests and the like, seven out of ten graduate managers voted to create the office.

In the interesting circumstance that the managers voted the office for the period of one year only was seen a sign that they approve the plan only in theory and do not intend to bind the conference to an arrangement that might not work in practice.

The one-year clause presents difficulty that the more pessimistic collegians fear will defeat the very purpose of the plan—the possibility that men qualified to handle the exacting and delicate post would not sever present connections for a one-year contract, particularly if the conference is extended to cover a matter of emolument.

Even the most optimistic boosters of the plan see little hope for its success if the nominee is less than a first-rate man.

The task of arbitrating the peevishly tangled and vehement disputes that develop between universities is not one for a tyro diplomat. Names that have been mentioned in the past in connection with the post include: Harry Braddock, secretary of National Football Officials' association; J. Rufus Klawns, former secretary of the organization; C. (Bob) Evans, prominent official; George Varnell, Sea sports editor and football referee; and Charles Keppen of the Angeles Athletic club.

The post would entail year-round duties but would naturally be primarily concerned with football. Although a bill of dunder has not been worked out, it is understood reliably that the "it" would take a hand in such incidents as the much-discussed Habes-Williams-Shove affair of the last Stanford-Southern California track meet—an occurrence which, in the absence of a partisan report, left fans in the dark as to whether Williams, Habes, Stanford or Southern California had been guilty of sportsmanship, misinterpretation or inadvertence, neither or both. According to conflicting versions Williams shoved Habes, Habes shoved Williams, neither did either, and both did both, during a quarter-mile won by Williams.

'TEX' BERGMAN BACK ON SLAB, HURLS WINNER

Some said the old boy had permanently retired but he hadn't. Apparently he has just begun to pitch. Which is just a roundhouse curve way of saying that "Tex" Bergman, one of Santa Ana's pioneer night baseball pitchers, has thrown his hat in the ring again.

Pitching for Al's Auto Service in the Bowl last night, the veteran raise-ball specialist turned in a brilliant four-hit game against the Spurgeon Memorial, M. E. South, church team, to start another week of City league warfare. The score was 8 to 4.

Hizzoner Kenneth Morrison waffled one of Bergman's spinners for a homer in the first inning, with one aboard, and the churchmen collected individual tallies in two other rounds, but otherwise Old Man Bergman was as penurious as some pawnbrokers.

Another patriarch, Earl ("Oil") Jones, did the submerging for the Spurgeon M. E. He hurled winning baseball before and after the fourth when the Gas-Pumpers nearly cut his feet off with sizzling drives and, profiting by two or three outfield miscues, rang the bell six times.

There will be no more City league ball until Thursday night when a twin bill is offered. The Moose lodge and the Santa Ana 20-30 club meet in the curtain-raiser at 7 o'clock. The undefeated Hill-Carden outfit opposes the Presbyterians in the afterpiece.

MAGIAS LOSES L. A. DECISION TO GAINES

Homer Gaines, Negro welterweight of Ventura, won a 10-round decision over "Wild Man" Macias, of Santa Ana, at the Los Angeles Stadium last night. Gaines substituted for Eddie Murdoch, who was unable to fight because of an injured arm.

Macias was the aggressor but Gaines counter-punched with skill and finished with lots of steam to win the verdict in the final round.

In other bouts Harry Goodland knocked out Jose Porcine in the second round; Battling Dodo, El Centro, was outpointed by Able Miller, Los Angeles, and Wilbur Denison took a decision over Baby Jack Dempsey.

Peek, Gregg Share Top at Skeet Club

Arnold Peek shared with Cal Gregg the honor of breaking the most targets at the Santa Ana Skeet club Sunday. They both hit 24 out of 25 birds.

FILM PEOPLE AT AUCTION IN MCGUIRE HOME

ORANGE, June 9.—Crowds of curious strangers jostled each other yesterday in the old mansion at 303 South Orange street where Miss Mary McGuire lived for nearly half a century. The furnishing of the home, which at one time was the scene of many brilliant social functions, were sold by auction and spirited bidding took place as moving picture actresses and actors from Hollywood vied with local residents and antique dealers from a number of cities to secure the articles put up by L. E. Martin, who conducted the sale.

Williams Haines, who is well known as a collector of antiques, secured a set of Manchester iron-ore china and many tried in vain to secure possession of a tilt table, which went at a fancy figure. An A. English card table over 100 years old and a gold framed mirror of the Empire period were objects of interest. A small pink glass oval bowl brought a high price. A number of early American pieces were eagerly sought by the buyers, no crowded the home all day.

Interesting articles were a pair of old candlesticks, English mohair curtains, a number of clocks over 60 years old, a chandelier, which was made in Italy, an old three-cornered ashstand and a quantity of early porcelain glass.

The bedroom furniture, the great part of which is Victorian, and a dining room furnishings, are of massive walnut.

ROBBERS' ROOST

by ZANE GREY

INSTALMENT 8

Jim carried a vision of Helen Herrick's picture in his mind as he rode back down the bench. And he cursed the predicament into which he had allowed himself to become involved.

"I'll have to stick it out," he muttered, that fair face and shining hair before his inward eye. "I might have chucked this outfit."

"I'll have to hoof it up to see the boss tonight," Hays said, after finishing the late supper. "Put me wise to what's come off in my absence."

"We've had no sign of Smoky's outfit. So we don't know where his camp is."

"I do. Good place an' out of sight. I gave Smoky orders to pack supplies back from Grand Junction every trip."

"Hank, reckon you're figger'n up a long hole-up somewhere," said Happy Jack, with a grin.

"Have you run into Heeseman?" went on Hays, ignoring Jack's hint.

"Yes. He called on us," replied Jim, casually.

"Humph! I don't savvy that dodge. It's no good. Heeseman is the slickest customer in Utah. Just tryin' to scrape acquaintance, eh?"

"I think so. It struck me that he might be wanting to throw his outfit with yours."

"Ahu! I had that hunch. It might wal be," replied Hays, meditatively.

"Herrick put Heeseman's outfit to cutting and peeling logs. He wants more horses and barn for them."

"That's good. It'll keep that outfit from ridin' down Limestone way. An' the cowboys—where have they been?"

"Plenty of work around, but little riding, except after the hounds. I had a chase after jack rabbits with the boss."

"Hounds an' jack!—What next? However, it's not so bad. Anythin' for us but regular ranchin'. Haw! Haw!"

"Herrick took me up to see his guns, went on Jim, easily, with furtive eyes on Hays. "Have you seen them?"

"Yes. Funny lot of knickknacks. There's one thing I'm goin' to own, though."

Jim laughed. He did not need to ask any more. Suddenly then a tigerish sensation shot through his vitals. It was like an unexpected attack.

"I'd like to own all that stuff," he said, he said, carefully.

Three days of genuine labor around the ranch followed. But on the fourth day, Herrick approached Jim.

"Wall, I want you to go to Grand Junction tomorrow after my sister," he said. "Take the cowboy Barnes with you. His home is in Grand Junction. Have him hitch the black team to the buckboard and start early."

"Boss, I reckon I'll go along with Wall," Hays said, coolly.

"Hays, I did not ask you services," returned Herrick. "You are needed here." His tone as much as his words settled the matter.

Jim purposely delayed his hour of quitting, in order to avoid Hays. After supper Hays lighted his pipe. Then, without facing Jim, he said:

"Jim, had the boss mentioned this here trip before?"

"No, I was as surprised as you."

"Wal, suppose you make some excuse an' let me go instead?"

"But Herrick won't like that, Hays," protested Jim. "He turned down your proposal cold."

"Shore. He did. Damn funny, I take that, too. But if you wouldn't or couldn't go, I'd be next choice."

"Hays, you surprise me. Here you are on the eve of a big deal—the biggest of your life. And you risk angering Herrick at this stage."

Hays puffed his pipe. He was beaten.

"Wall," he said, finally, "I reckon maybe you're right, Jim. Only it didn't seem so."

By sunrise next day Jim Wall was on his way to Grand Junction. Young Barnes, the cowboy, had his hands full with the spirited team.

Presently Jim's ever-watchful eyes caught dust far ahead, and dots of riders getting off the road into the cedar thickets. They would be Smoky's outfit, Jim calculated, and gave them credit for seeing the buckboard first. They did not appear again, and Jim knew they were hiding on their way back to Star Ranch.

At four o'clock they drove into Grand Junction, which was considerably larger and busier than Green River.

"Barnes, here we are," said Jim. "This is a metropolis, compared to Green River."

"Pust I've been home fer long," rejoined Barnes. "I'll take care of the team at my paw's."

Barnes drove off down the road and Jim leisurely entered the lodging house, which, it turned out, was run by a buxom woman, who made herself agreeable. She was loquacious, and very shortly Jim gained the surprising information that no cattle herds had passed through Grand Junction this week.

After supper Jim turned in early. Awakening early he got up and leisurely shaved and dressed, paying more than usual attention to his appearance. He was there to escort an English girl fifty miles across the wilderness to Star Ranch. One thing he was sure of, and that was that it would be vastly better for Miss Herrick than if Hank Hays had been sent. Suddenly this fact struck Jim as singular. Was he any better than Hank Hays?

After breakfast he went out and found a boy to shine his high-top boots and brush his dark, worn suit and his black sombrero. Presently, then, he encountered Barnes.

"Howdy, boy. Did you have a nice time home?"

"Gee, I did," grinned the cowboy. "You sure look bright this mornin'."

"Wal, you look kinda spick an' span yourself, Jim," drawled Barnes. "Pust how the idea of a girl gets a feller."

"Funny? You mean terrible, my friend. A woman is as terrible as an army approaching with banners."

"Gosh, who'd ever dreamed you had seen inside a Bible!" exclaimed the cowboy.

"It's funny, though, how I happened to remember that. Now, Barnes, listen. This Miss Herrick might take me for an honest, decent fellow like you. But if I let that pass I'd be sailing under false colors. I don't do that. And as I can't very well tell her myself you must."

"Tell her what?" queried Barnes, with a puzzled grin.

"You know. The kind of a man I am."

"I sort of like you myself. So if you want me to tell her anythin' you must say what."

"Well, then, tell her about Herrick hiring all the desperadoes in Utah, and that I'm one of them. Make me out worse than Hays and Heeseman thrown together."

"Shore. That's easy. But what's the idea, Jim?"

"I wasn't always an outcast. And I think it'd hurt me less if this girl was scared and repelled if she took me for a real Westerner, you know, and talked and laughed—well, I'd go get powerfully drunk and probably shoot up Star Ranch. So you fix it for me, will you, Barnes?"

"Shore, I'll fix it," replied Barnes, with a sly glance at Jim. "You jest give me a chance when the stage rolls up. She's due now. I'll run down an' drive the buckboard up."

But the stage did not show up for an hour—a long, nervous dragging one for Jim Wall. Grand Junction was no different from other Western points remote from civilization—everybody turned out to see the stage come in. It was a gala occasion for the youngsters, of whom there was a surprising number. The women onlookers, Jim observed, rather hung in the background.

The four-horse stage came rolling up in a cloud of dust. The driver, a grizzled old frontiersman, brought it to a stop with a fine flourish, and bawled out: "Grand Junction! Half hour fer lunch."

There were six passengers, two of them feminine. The last to leave the stage was a tall, veiled woman, her lithe and erect figure encased in a long linen coat. She carried a small satchel. Expectantly she looked around. Jim stepped before her, baring his head.

"Are you Miss Herrick?"

"Oh!—Yes," she exclaimed in relief.

"Your brother sent me to meet you," went on Jim, indicating Barnes, who stood to one side.

"He did not come!" The full, rich voice, with its foreign intonation, struck pleasantly upon Jim's ear.

"No. There's much work at Star Ranch. But it's perfectly all right, Miss Herrick. We will drive you safely over before dark."

Brock Receives Blank In Letter

Perhaps the briefest letter ever written was received by A. Brock, county agricultural commissioner yesterday. The letter was sent from Yosemite valley and on the four pages enclosed there was written—nothing. Whether the missive was sent as a mistake or as a joke is a question that is puzzling Brock.

Graduation Exercises To Start Here Tomorrow

COLLEGIANS TO GET DIPLOMAS ON WEDNESDAY

Class work comes to an end in city schools next Friday, bringing to a close the activities of school life in the city for the summer vacation period, which extends for three months.

Commencement exercises of the various graduating classes will be held this week, with that of the junior college being first on the calendar. It will be observed on the college campus commencing at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Next comes the Frances Willard Junior High school commencement exercises, which will be held in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow. The Julia Lathrop exercises will be held in the Four-square church auditorium, just north of the school, at 7:30 p. m. on Thursday while the high school commencement will be held on the school campus at 7:30 p. m. Friday. Class day will be observed at the high school on Thursday.

College Graduation

With the spacious lawns at the Santa Ana Junior college for a setting, the annual commencement exercises of the college will climax several weeks of activity coincident with graduation.

The academic procession, led by members of the faculty in their robes, will start from the north end of the campus and lead down the central walks to the platform. The 108 graduates will enter to the processional march, "Commencement," played by the college orchestra under the direction of S. J. Mustel. John A. Cranston, retiring superintendent of schools, will preside over the ceremonies.

The Rev. O. W. Reinlus of the Richland Avenue Methodist church, will give the invocation and the Women's chorus will sing "Cradle Song." The address of the afternoon will be given by Dr. A. J. Soldan, of Santa Monica, his topic being "The Development of Personality." President D. K. Hammond will then present the class, diplomas will be given to the graduates by George H. Wells, president of the board of education and the acceptance will be given by Warren Schutz, president of the class.

One of the highlights of the services will be the announcement of honors. President Hammond will read the names of students graduating with honor, give the two Robert L. Brown prizes for the most outstanding man and woman in scholarship and activities, the two First National bank prizes for the best commercial students and the Beta Gamma prize, offered to the student considered to have given the most service to the school through extra-curricular activities and based on leadership, activities and scholarship.

The men's chorus will sing "Bugle Song." Rev. Mr. Reinlus will pronounce the benediction and the class will disperse to music by the orchestra. Since the exercises are outdoors and nearly 5000 seats have been installed, the public is cordially invited to attend.

Graduates of Frances Willard

On Thursday night the 136 pupils of Julia Lathrop school who have completed the course of that institution will receive their certificates at services to be held in the Four Square Gospel church on South Main street.

One of the features on the program arranged for the graduation of the 112 students completing the course at Frances Willard will be presentation of the Burke trophy to the school for its recent victory in an essay contest when students of both schools prepared compositions on the prohibition question. The trophy will be presented by J. F. Burke, publisher of the Santa Ana Register.

NEW RED CROSS STAMPS ARRIVE IN SANTA ANA

Postage stamps commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the American Red Cross arrived in Santa Ana today and, according to Postmaster Terry E. Stephenson, will go on sale tomorrow. These stamps are of the two-cent denomination and the supply is limited, he said.

In keeping with the policy of the post office department to place commemorative stamps on sale the first day in localities having historical relations to the event for which the special stamp is provided, the Red Cross stamp was placed on sale in Washington D. C. and Danville N. Y. on May 21. Washington was selected because it is the home of the national headquarters of the Red Cross and Danville is the city in which the first chapter of the American Red Cross was organized.

The new stamp is printed in two colors, black and red, and is enclosed in a border formed by heavy black outer and lighter inner line slightly indented along the center on all four sides. Across the top of the stamp in two lines are the words "United States Postage." The central design of the stamp, printed in black, is the figure of a Red Cross nurse kneeling before the globe with outstretched hands, reproduced from the 1930 poster entitled "The Greatest Mother." In the upper part of the stamp at the left of the figure is the Greek cross with five equal squares, the emblem of the organization, printed in red. Arranged vertically, opposite the indentation on either side, are the dates in black Gothic figures, "1881" at the left and "1931" at the right. In both lower corners within white bordered ovals with black background appears the white numeral "2." The ovals are surmounted by acanthus scroll ornaments. Across the bottom of the stamp in a straight line between the ovals containing the denomination numeral is the word "Cents" in white Roman numerals.

Police News

W. L. Jackson, of 2312 Spurgeon street, reported the theft of his automobile from a place where he parked it between Second and Third streets on Sycamore street Saturday night.

Asserted to have been drunk at Lacy and Fruit streets at 4:20 p. m. Sunday, C. A. St. Clair, 62, was arrested by Santa Ana police officers and given a cell in the county jail.

Serafin Gutierrez, 17, of Placentia, was taken into custody Sunday by Officers Thornwaite and Porter, members of the county fruit patrol and is being held for investigation for the district attorney's office.

PERISCOPING PROSPERITY

That the economic depression that has held the nation in a grasp of financial despondency for more than a year is lifting and a return to normal prosperity is just around the next corner is the opinion of A. I. Mellenthin, vice-president and cashier of the Commercial National bank of this city.

The hysteria that accompanied the first general crash of 1929 has run its course and businessmen are beginning to recover their optimism and this feeling is reflected by the working man who finds the unemployment situation less acute than it was a few months ago, the banker believes.

"I do not mean that the prosperity of a few years ago has returned," he said in commenting on existing business conditions, "but I do believe that the decline has ended and prosperity is returning. This prosperity will be more stable and permanent I believe and the speed of its return depends upon the rapidity with which organizations and individuals adjust themselves to the new condition."

"I believe that the stock market has reached a stationary basis and will remain steady with an upward trend. This has been indicated through prices quoted during the last few days. Right now there are many stocks being sold at prices lower than these same stocks would liquidate for if liquidation of the companies should become necessary immediately."

"Right here in Santa Ana the people are more optimistic than they were six months ago. At that time there was a feeling of depression general over the entire country. Today the men I come in contact with daily as a banker are more cheerful and indicate their belief that conditions are improving."

"In southern Orange county there are at least 1000 people working today who were not employed three weeks ago and that has already made a noticeable difference in business here. This increase in employment comes through the packing houses starting operation with full force. In other sections of the county the same thing has happened."

"In the entire county there are 25 packing houses, employing approximately 2500 people as executives, clerks, packers and pickers. Basing the wage on a $3 daily average, which incidentally is a low average, there is an additional $7500 in daily payrolls being put in circulation today that was not available three weeks ago. The result is that on Saturday, generally the pay day for all packing houses, business here in Santa Ana is increased approximately 25 per cent. The same is true in other communities of the county."

"In addition to this $7500 daily payroll, being released at present, the orange packing industry is helping business through the purchase locally of equipment and supplies. Outside money is coming in due to fruit shipments and is in turn being put into circulation."

"With the gradual lifting of the depression one finds that there is still money available for investment in Santa Ana and Orange county. Of course the people with this money are more careful today than they would have been a few years ago and are looking for better bargains but that is a good thing for business as it will tend to stabilize it."

"For the individual wage earner prosperity is returning through the increased buying power of the dollar. With all commodities priced at the lowest level in years the

TUSTIN FARM CENTER GETS FAIR TROPHY

Second place for the diversified farm center exhibits was awarded the Foothill Farm center, which showed a colorful temple scene, formed entirely of large bricks and literally covered with farm products. It received $100 and a plaque.

Anaheim Farm center won third award of $50 and a plaque with its display depicting a temple scene with desert surroundings and a Spanish caballero and Indians in costume.

Last Saturday, at the Shrine Civic Auditorium in Los Angeles, 23 High School girls from more than a score of Southern California cities and towns—each of them a champion cake-baker in her own high school—competed for the honor of being acclaimed the champion high school cake-baker in Southern California. The try-out contests have been running for three months, and more than three thousand girls baked cakes in the hope of capturing the recognized premiership in the feminine art of cake-baking.

It is a wholesome thing, when three thousand young women of today are holding precious, the fine old customs of their mothers and grandmothers, while adding—as their contribution to home-making—new skill and modern methods. Southern California may well be proud of these young women, and proud of their leaders in school and home, who have stimulated such splendid womanly ambitions.

Another splendid indication of wide spread interest in wholesome Southern California womanhood, was the thousands of visitors, who attended the reception to the contestants in the afternoon, sponsored by the National Business and Professional Women of Los Angeles.

Pegasus Club Enjoys Pretty Luncheon In Was Home

Election of new officers for the Pegasus club took place late last week when members were entertained at luncheon in the home of Mrs. Frank Was, 617 Orange avenue. The election resulted in the choice of Mrs. Earl Morris, president; Mrs. Was, vice president, and Mrs. Frank Lansdown, secretary.

This business interval was preceded by the luncheon at which the guests enjoyed the delicate menu color scheme wrought in place of cards, nut cups and other decorative appointments, harmonizing with the pretty crystal luncheon service used.

"Castles" as the program theme of the afternoon, gave rise to many interesting features when Mrs. Morris presided over the combined business and program session. Opening the entertainment was a poem sent by Mrs. Fannie Lash in appreciation of the many kindnesses of the club members during her illness. She titled her verses "The One Pegasus."

Mrs. Walter Foote read a poem, "A Poor Thing, But Mine Own," and Mrs. George W. Bond followed with other poems on "Castles" and "Architecture." An original sketch, "Sling Song," was presented by Mrs. Charles Fuller, and Mrs. Charles Belasco continued the program with "A Short Story" and "Castles in the Valley," two pretty poems, followed by a song, "Sweetest Rose of June Time."

"Dream Castles" was read by Miss Marjorie Lusk, and Mrs. J. M. Hartong gave a feature article on "Frank Miller and the Mission Inn." Mrs. Caleb Jackson gave "Dreams of Childhood" and Mrs. Morris read poems by Longfellow. An essay on "Day Dreamer" was read by Mrs. Was, and Mrs. Lansdown concluded the program with extracts on "The Purpose of Living" by Booth Tarkington. One guest was present, Mrs. Volck, a house-guest of Mrs. Morris.

Business Women Meet For Installation Ceremonies

June always brings an important occasion to members of the Business and Professional Women's club, for it becomes the duty of the president and her board of directors to resign official authority to their successors in office, and the ceremony is always accompanied by impressive rites such as were observed last night when approximately 75 clubwomen assembled at Ketter's blue room for an inauguration dinner and program.

Mrs. Marshall Northcross, who has had such a pleasant year as president and has succeeded in making it equally valuable and interesting for her sister clubwomen, had the pleasure of welcoming her successor in office, Miss Alma Sweet, and, as a final graceful gesture, placing upon the bodice of Miss Sweet's pretty yellow silk gown, the little gold federation pin which had been her own gift for her predecessor, Mrs. John A. Tessmann. To Mrs. Northcross was given a past-president's pin, the gift of the club, with Miss Martha Whitson making the presentation.

The entire evening was one of interest and pleasure, from the delectable dinner served at tables decorated with coral sweet peas, to the musical program whose artists were introduced by Dr. Estelle Workman of the Jupe committee. Between these intervals was the outstanding feature of installation, with Miss Martha Whitson, a past president not only of the club but of the Orange County Federation, B. P. W., conducting the pretty ritual which she had evolved. Miss Sweet, installed as president, will have as her co-workers through the coming year, Miss Lulu Ott and Mrs. Thomas Douglas, first and second vice presidents; Miss Dorothy Decker, secretary; Miss Harriet Whidden, treasurer; Mrs. Zola Wilkinson, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Kester Covington and Mrs. Loyal K. Hiner, directors. All but Mrs. King were present for installation rites.

As one of her last duties as president, Mrs. Northcross had the pleasure of introducing four new members, Mrs. Edith Davidson, Miss Evelyn Sherbert, and the Misses Fanny and Mary Jane Steel, the club's first two members. Miss Ethel Coffman, June program chairman, announced next Monday's luncheon as a "convention" meeting when reports of the district convales will be given, and Monday, June 22, as a 7 o'clock breakfast meeting. She then asked Dr. Estelle Workman to present artists of the entertainment interval, the three young musicians who comprise the KREG radio artists, "Pals of the Air," Miss Jeannette Baldwin, Ted Garland and Kenneth Workman.

Miss Baldwin's song group, "Dear Little Boy of Mine" and "Sweet Mystery of Life" opened the pleasant interval, and displayed the range and power of her fresh, sweet soprano voice. Ted Garland played her accompaniments, remaining at the piano for Kenneth Workman's beautiful rendering of Cadman's "At Dawning," and then playing two brilliant piano solos, "Cantique d'Amour" by Liszt, and "Polichinelle" by Rachmaninoff.

The young people conducted the entertainment as they would a radio program, concluding with two songs by Mr. Workman, Oley Speaks "Morning," and "A Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, in which his rich voice found full expression.

During the remainder of the evening the Business Women chatted informally of their plans to attend the convention this coming week-end in Pomona.

BEAUTIFUL CEREMONIAL AND MUSICALE CLOSE EBELL YEAR

Little fugitive strains of music sang their melodious way through the minds of Ebell women today, and bits of bright pictures stole into their memories as they recalled the delights of the closing session of the club year: delights which all shared yesterday afternoon when scores of clubwomen assembled in the clubhouse auditorium for a program which blended installation of new officers and a musical program into a harmonious whole.

In presiding over her final session as president of the general Ebell society, Mrs. Robert G. Tutthill brought to that duty the same poised charm and executive ability that she has displayed throughout her two terms in the presidential chair. Her appearance was, as usual, one of quiet distinction and beauty, for she was gowned in a composite costume of orchid georgette with hat to match, the whole effect very striking with her fresh coloring and beautiful hair.

Installation Rites She conducted the installation rites with her usual manner of poised dignity, introducing her own officers with quiet words of appreciation for their co-operation and support during the year. As each was presented, she introduced in turn the successor to that office, who took the place vacated by her predecessor. As a finale, after concluding her farewell address, Mrs. Tutthill presented the gavel to Mrs. Paul Bailey, incoming president, who accepted it with a short inaugural address expressing her appreciation of the honor paid her by the society, and the co-operation promised by her predecessors in office.

Of the 1930 and '31 official board, Mrs. Hugh Plumb and Mrs. Wyckoff Hoxie succeeded themselves. Mrs. Clyde Jenken remains as corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. M. Holmes as curator, and Mrs. W. H. Haddon as treasurer. Mrs. Ralph Mosher, now traveling in Europe, will assume the post of director left vacant by Mrs. Bailey's accession to the presidency. Mrs. Earl Morrow succeeded Mrs. A. G. Flagg; Mrs. B. H. Sharpless took the directorship vacated by Mrs. Edwin L. McFadden, and Mrs. F. W. Wlesseman followed Mrs. Harry Spencer. Miss Edmund Snow as recording secretary; Mrs. James E. Paul follows Dr. Margaret D. Baker as first vice president; Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh is second vice president, succeeding Mrs. L. A. Chenoweth; Mrs. George Kenneth Scott is third vice president, succeeding Mrs. Emrys D. White, and Mrs. Fred Rowland fills the fourth vice presidency left vacant by the sad death of Mrs. W. D. Baker.

Attractive Gifts At the conclusion of the ceremonial, Mrs. Tutthill made the discovery that her board members had, for the first time in the two years of her rule, deliberately disregarded her request. This was when she was presented with a fitted traveling bag from the general society, and a matching hat box from her board, both in brown pebbled leather.

An auspicious opening to her term as president was provided Mrs. Bailey when it became her pleasant duty to present the artists of the afternoon, Santa Ana's own talented pianist, Clarence A. Gustlin; Lucille Gibbs, coloratura soprano, and Martin Ruderman, flutist, the three comprising La Trio Charming.

Well Named Trio Music lovers in the audience were agreed that the ensemble is fittingly named, for no more charming group has appeared before Ebell women in the history of the society. Spring's own delicate and lovely spirit was exemplified in the program, and in both solo and ensemble work, the results from a musical standpoint were beyond criticism.

"Gaily Chant the Summer Birds," chosen as the opening number, displayed the coloratura qualities of Miss Gibbs' voice, whose brilliant trills and rapid harmonies were echoed by the silvery tones of the flute, with the piano weaving a bright-hued background.

Three English songs provided the second feature, with the soloist accompanied by Mr. Gustlin.

Young People Come From Hollywood To Wed

Choosing Santa Ana as the setting for their wedding, Miss Marie Leonard, daughter of Mrs. Lucile Leonard of Hollywood and Charles Teed of the same city were married Sunday in the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Melcher, 1702 West Eighth street.

The ceremony was read at 12:30 o'clock with the Rev. H. J. Powell officiating. The Rev. Mr. Powell is a former minister of the Baptist church of Hollywood, and is now a deacon in the First Baptist church of Santa Ana.

Ferns were combined with snapdragons, sweet peas, gladioli and potted foliage plants to form a background for the affair. That the bride will ever be true" was suggested by her costume, for she wore a filmy frock of sheerest blue chiffon, with dainty slippers in matching tint. Her corsage bouquet was of white carnations and fern, and she wore a hat of eggshell hue.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Blossom Leonard, as maid of honor, becomingly gowned in yellow chiffon. Her hat, too, was in the eggshell tint. David Evans, of Hollywood, was best man.

Immediately following the wedding, luncheon was served. Spread with a rich lace cloth, the table provided a charming setting for the ivory holders bearing slender green candles, flickering and glowing on the large wedding cake. This was in the chosen ivory and green color scheme, and was cut by the new Mrs. Teed.

Mr. and Mrs. Teed left for a honeymoon in San Francisco, and on their return will make their home in Hollywood.

Guests at the wedding and luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Mort Reiser, Mrs. Marian Seeley, Mrs. Ida Yost, A. L. Melcher and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Melcher, this city; the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Teed, Harry Goldwater, Miss Blossom Leonard, Mrs. Lucile Leonard, and David Evans, Hollywood; Miss Millie Teed, the bridegroom's sister; Vancouver, B. C.; Miss Mary Fleming and George Fleming of Los Angeles.

Members of the League of Women Voters held an enjoyable luncheon meeting Friday evening. Mrs. A. J. Knight was hostess in her home on West Chapman avenue in Orange.

A covered dish menu was served after the usual class session, conducted in the morning by Mrs. A. Lagasse. Reports from the recent state convention of the League of Women Voters held at Asilomar were given by the delegates who attended. They included Mrs. Knight, Mrs. E. C. Wilson, Mrs. C. C. Oakes and Mrs. Louise Mock. Mrs. Mock was chosen first vice president of the state organization at the convention.

Plans were made for the next meeting to be held June 19 at 10 a. m. in the Y. W. rooms. City government, the topic to be studied for the next several months, will be discussed.

Those present at the meeting, other than Mrs. Knight were Miss Octavia Goldworthy and Mesdames C. C. Oakes, Louise Mock, E. C. Wilson, Knight, J. D. Campbell, B. Williams, George Wright and A. Lagasse.

the past few days. While there she attended a dinner in the Masonic club, given by the Los Angeles chapter of the League of Western Writers. S. S. McClure was the speaker. Miss Kate Kerby, author of "In My Chinese Garden," was one of the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Deane Olive, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tournat, La Collina drive, plan to leave tomorrow for a vacation trip in the northern part of the state. From Santa Monica Mr. and Mrs. Danker will continue alone, and the Tournats will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. John Borran. The four will continue to Oakland to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Tournat. They plan to visit friends in Burlingame, and will stop at San Francisco.

Their trip will take them as far north as Yosemite, and they plan to be gone for about two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Dunkin and Mrs. Virgil Duncan, have returned to their home in this city from Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Dunkin made the trip to Oregon to be present at the graduation of their son, Virgil, from the college of electrical engineering at Oregon State college in Corvallis. From there, Mr. and Mrs. Dunkin toured Seattle and Vancouver, and at Oregon were joined by their son for the trip home.

Miss Jane Zink, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gullell and sons, Raymond and Ralph, 1338 West Seventh street, spent the week end in San Diego with Mrs. Gullell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pistole.

Miss Versna Bailey, 1041 West Sixth street, returned Monday from a week's visit with Mrs. Fred Tussler in San Bernardino. Mrs. Tussler was formerly Miss Eva Wheeler and her marriage was an event of March 19.

Word received here yesterday by friends of Mrs. Edith Minter and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Leonard, North Ross street, stated that they were enjoying many interesting sights in Florida. Enroute east, they visited the John Brown school at Sliam Springs, A. R., the Shiloh battle ground in Tennessee and the Alabama. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard are standing the trip nice-

Surprise Party Given As Farewell For Mrs. Jiles

Mrs. John Jiles, Washington Court, was the incentive for a pleasant affair Friday evening, when Mrs. R. L. Ballard entertained in her home at 2515 North Main street. The honor guest, together with her mother, Mrs. Daisy McGee, and Mrs. Roy V. Ivins had been invited to spend the evening with Mrs. Ballard, and Mrs. Jiles was completely surprised upon their arrival, to find four other friends in the Ballard home.

Mrs. Jiles has recently been appointed from patrol inspector at El Centro to immigration inspector at the border and Mrs. Jiles plans to leave the latter part of this week for Chula Vista where they will establish their future home.

Pink and orchid gladioli were used in the floral decorations of the Ballard home, while other appointments of the evening also varied with the hints. A session of bridge was enjoyed, with beautiful handkerchiefs being awarded to Mrs. Dan H. Thompson and Mrs. Roy V. Ivins, who scored first and second high. Mrs. Jiles was showered with an array of lovely handkerchiefs by the guests. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee, served at the card tables, concluded the happy affair.

Those present, other than the hostess and her honor guest, were Mesdames Daisy McGee, Roy V. Ivins, Dan H. Thompson, J. W. McElree, Santa Ana; Mrs. B. H. Bauman, Anaheim, and Mrs. George Merriam, Orange.

W. R. C. Service Club Is Entertained

When the Twenty-five Years' Service club of the W. R. C. met late last week with Mrs. Juliette Smith of 122 East Eleventh street, the early part of the afternoon was given over to business discussions, reports of illness among members and veterans, and other matters of like nature.

The remainder of the afternoon was social, and the program committee had arranged for an entertaining contest in which the names of the presidents of the United States figured in clever manner. Mrs. Porter, a sister of Mrs. Almira Hudson, and a guest of the afternoon, guessed the greater number of these, with Miss Cassie Ferguson second.

Additional entertainment was offered by little Miss Frances Smith, nine-year-old granddaughter of the hostess, who gave several clever recitations. As the afternoon drew to a close, Mrs. Smith with the assistance of her daughter, Miss Mattie Smith, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Smith, served a dainty refreshment course.

Service club members present were Mrs. Smith the hostess, and Mesdames Rose Diers, Anna Pendleton, Emma Moshaugh, Alice Khyll, Dora Spangler, Abbie Vandermast, Ella Wilson, Alice Yount, Eugenia Harvey, Cassie Ferguson, Fannie Cunningham, Margaret Culver, Almira Hudson, Addie Birdsell, Sarah Alford, Annie Arnold, and two guests, Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Elizabeth Birkhead.

Senior Nurses Shower Saturday's Bride With Gifts

One of the pretty affairs of the past week was the bridal shower given by senior class nurses of Orange County hospital as a compliment to Miss Bertha Shaw, dietitian at the hospital, who on Saturday evening, June 6, became the bride of Albert H. Voelckel of Ft. Thomas, Ariz.

In planning their hospitality the young hostesses made the Nurses' home on the hospital grounds, a charming spot indeed with the quantities of white roses sent for the occasion by Mrs. Harry Zaiser, wife of the superintendent. Dr. Harry E. Zaiser, for entertainment was an amusing mock wedding in which Florence Archer Smith took the part of the bride, and Miss Mary Katherine Wheeler was her dignified groom.

A striking feature of the bridal costume was the bouquet of pale green kitchen utensils, which later formed a part of the shower gifts presented Miss Shaw. Other gifts were in beautiful linens, and the prettily wrapped packages were placed in a huge inverted umbrella, and presented to the delighted bride-elect.

Guests found much diversion in writing advice to the bride, much of it couched in poetic form, and after these were read aloud, the collection was presented her for future enjoyment.

The scene of the festivity was transferred to the lecture room at the refreshment hour, and the dainty menu served included a wedding cake presented by Miss Grace Elizabeth Lansing, superintendent of nurses. It contained the traditional favors, of which Mrs. Marva Best received the thimble, forerunning spinsterhood, and Miss Anna Ebbinger received the ring indicating romance to come.

"KEEP YOUTH THROUGH THE YEARS!" says Jack Mulhall

"Youth is a delightful, fascinating thing," says Jack Mulhall. "It is certainly a woman's most endearing charm."

"And nowadays birthdays don't seem to matter at all! A woman keeps that glowing, youthful charm at almost any age!"

"Every day here in Hollywood I meet actresses famous for their charm—more alluring now than they were ten or even fifteen years ago!"

"I should think every woman would learn their complexion secret. Youthful skin should be guarded for the alluring thing it is."

The stage and screen stars KEEP complexion youthful through the years. In Hollywood (605 of the 613 there!)—on Broadway—in Europe—they use Lux Toilet Soap for every type of skin.

That is why this fragrant, very white soap is found in theater dressing rooms—is the official soap in all the great film studios. Your skin will love it, too! The caress of dollar-a-cake French soap for just 10¢ a cake!

The MIXING BOWL by ANN MEREDITH

Morning, Noon and Night

Baked ham is a frequent and welcome dinner visitor in summer time, welcomed because it is so versatile. What other meat can you name that appears acceptably at dinner, sizzling hot and sum'us with eggs for breakfast, aloof and cool with salad for luncheon, and very swanky and high-hat for some favorite midnight supper dish? Not one, so I'm for ham, first, last and all the time!

What to do with odds and ends is sometimes a problem. I use the best part of the ham sliced and served in various ways, and when slicing is no longer possible the scraps are run through the food chopper, packed into a bowl and put in the refrigerator. This is what happened to the last bowlful in our house.

For a quick, hot breakfast for hungry boys, I made slices of toast, and these were spread with the minced ham heated with a little butter and tiny bit of milk, and on each slice of ham toast was put a nicely poached egg, dusted with paprika and melted butter.

For an emergency company luncheon puff pastry cases were heated piping hot and filled to overflowing with the minced ham heated in a little of my own cheese hollandaise sauce left from dinner the night before (the cheese sauce has been published recently). With this rich hot dish was served a salad on lime gelatine filled with minced cucumber and just a suspicion of onion flavoring.

Another emergency occasion was some of Bob's friends dropping in for dinner when the chops wouldn't go round. An omelette did noble service, filled with minced ham, more of the ham used as dressing after the omelette was on the platter. Hot biscuits and a green salad went with this dish also.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Tapica Meat Loaf

2 pounds beef and pork mixed
1 chopped onion
1 chopped green pepper
1 can tomato soup
1 scant cup minute tapica
Salt and pepper.

I was house-cleaning my recipe file this morning when I came across this recipe, sent to me more than four years ago. I have just finished mixing one and while it is in the oven baking, we'll talk about it.

The first thing you will notice is that this meat loaf does not mention eggs, milk or bread crumbs, the inevitable concomitant of meat loaves. The tomato soup and tapica take their place most acceptably.

The proportions for the meat are one part of bulk pork sausage and three parts of ground beef. Mix them well, season quite highly, add the chopped onion and green pepper, and finish the mixing with the soup brought to the boil with the tapica. Mix and whip until the whole mass is light and spongy, then pack into a buttered bread tin or a casserole, and bake for one and one-half hours.

There are almost 2800 calories in this meat loaf, with servings for eight.

Wouldn't fluffy, hot rolls be good with the Tapica Meat Loaf? You know you can have them in a jiffy by following the method described in the leaflet, Quickly Made Rolls 'N' Muffins.

And, if you have too much dough for one baking, just tuck it away in the refrigerator and you'll have ice-box rolls on tap.

Send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and a free copy will be mailed to you at once.

College Associations Are Recalled in Week-end Visit

An interesting guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hansen, 412 Orange avenue, was Mrs. Roby C. Robbins of Lenore, N. C., who was entertained over the week-end. Mrs. Robbins' husband, Prof. Roby C. Robbins, was a member of the faculty of Aurora college, Aurora, Ill., when both Mr. and Mrs. Hansen were students there, and many lively memories of college days were recalled.

Earlier in the week, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen had experienced the pleasure of entertaining the president of the college, Orin H. Jenks and Mrs. Jenks, for a short visit, and during their stay in the Southland, a reunion of former Aurora college students was held in Los Angeles. The Santa Anas were among the guests who enjoyed reminiscences of days on the campus with the president and his wife.

Honoree Showered With Gifts at Luncheon

A pretty bridge luncheon was given Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. I. M. Gregory, 2130 North Ross street, with Mrs. Howard Greene of Del Rosa as honoree.

Shortly after arrival, guests were seated at four tables and were served with a delicious menu. Many bouquets of flowers were used throughout the rooms and on the table as well, adding in carrying out a pink color scheme.

In the bridge contest of the day Mrs. Howard Holcomb scored high, receiving a linen guest towel. For scoring second high, Mrs. Paige Robey was presented with a dainty table cover. Consolation went to Mrs. Lester Henriksen. In concluding, the hostess presented Mrs. Greene with many lovely gifts of miscellaneous order.

Those invited to share Mrs. Gregory's hospitality in honoring Mrs. Greene were Miss Hills Rymer, Mesdames W. A. Rymer and Basil Rice McAfee, of Del Rosa; Mesdames J. M. Robey, Donald Draper, W. E. Bromfield, Arch Fowler, Miss Ethel Hathaway, Highland; Mesdames Ray Mills, R. B. Broadbelt, Lester Henriksen, W. E. George, Howard Holcomb, Harry Pommier, J. S. ### Mr. and Mrs. McBay Welcome Arrival Of Son

Today would be a good time for travelers to ask for special rates over the Southern Pacific, as William Earl McBay, cashier at the local office, is dwelling in the clouds because of the birth of a son to Mrs. McBay Sunday, June 7, in Santa Ana Valley hospital. Both Mrs. McBay and her little son, who will be christened William Robert McBay, were reported today as doing very nicely indeed.

Many Children Attend Birthday Celebration

Twenty-three classmates, playmates and cousins of little Dorothy Frazer joined with her Saturday afternoon in celebrating her eighth birthday in the home of her father, 602 West Sixth street. Dorothy is a member of the high 3 class of McKinley school.

Games in entertaining variety were played. School songs were enthusiastically sung by the guests, with members of Dorothy's class giving special numbers. A pink and white color motif was carried out during the refreshment hour, when robes and ferns were used for decorations. A large birthday cake was decorated in the chosen colors, and was served with ice cream.

Pretty Dinner Honors Confirmation of Daughter

In honor of the confirmation of their daughter, Miss Evangeline Mueller, into St. John's Lutheran church, in Orange Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Mueller entertained with a delicious chicken dinner in their home on Tustin avenue in the evening.

A color scheme of yellow carried out in a gladiolus and dahlias and in the nut cups and slender tapers used on the table, created a charming picture. Many lovely gifts were presented to the honoree just before the dinner.

Enjoying the affair with the honoree, Miss Mueller, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Mueller, were Dr. and Mrs. Charles Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. George Rohrs, Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Bandick, Mrs. Sophie Klett and Miss Opal Main of Orange.

"THE GORILLA" AT WALKER STATE NOW

Mystery and comedy to the nth degree—that's "The Gorilla!" all talking feature picture heading the double bill at Walker's State tonight, Wednesday and Thursday. It is funny and thrilling by turns and sometimes at the same time—which is really going some, when you get right down to cases. It is by all odds the best of all the mirthful hair-raisers of the screen and stage, and if you can guess the conclusion up to the final minute of the action you're a better sleuth than this reviewer. On the same bill is "Hellbound," featuring Leo Carrillo.

IN POWERFUL PLAY

John Boles and Genevieve Tobin, in a scene from the famous play "Seed," now showing at the Fox Broadway theater. The story, by Charles G. Norris has brought to the screen one of the most powerful dramas to show in Santa Ana this year.

FEATURES BILLED IN MAHONEY'S SHOW

A new show in every detail is promised patrons of the Fox West Coast theater tomorrow night, with another showing of the Mahoney Fun Frolic and Fashion review, a special feature which has rapidly become one of the most popular entertainments the theater has ever staged.

The show has built wonderfully during the past several weeks, according to Manager Norman Sprowl, and as a result, more and more merchants are giving away valuable prizes each week, he stated.

A special stunt is promised for tomorrow night, Sprowl stated, but the nature of it is being kept a secret between Sprowl and Eddie Mahoney. The show is being given in addition to the regular feature which is "Born to Love," with Constance Bennett.

Joanne Gaylord and her line of dancing girls will also be a feature of this week's program, it was announced.

BOLSA

BOLSA, June 9.—Four tables of cards entertained at the Bolsa party given at the clubhouse. Sterling Price and Donald Larter won first and second prizes, respectively, and Mrs. Mabel Lewis and Mrs. Harry Howard the prizes for women. Potato salad, crackers and coffee were served by the hostess committee.

Clyde Richardson is convalescing at his home from a minor operation.

Mrs. Clarence Groves held a practice at her home for her music pupils who are taking part in the recital which she is giving at her home in about three weeks.

'SEED' ATTRACTS BIG CROWDS AT B'DWAY

A human document, written and acted with a sincerity and naturalness that has never been surpassed, "Seed," now showing at the Fox Broadway theater, is one of the best pictures Santa Ana has seen in many months.

Adapted from Charles G. Norris' best seller by the same name, the principal roles of the picture are enacted by a trio of players whose performances are admirable. John Boles is seen as the husband and father, whose abilities as a writer have been adversely affected by the fact that he must continually devote himself to the difficult task of supporting a large family of children.

The role of the boyhood sweetheart who, after 10 years enters the life of the writer is played by Genevieve Tobin. The third star is Lois Wilson, who plays the wife.

Others in the cast include Zazu Pitts, Raymond Hackett, Bette Davis and Francis Dade. "Seed" will be remembered here as one of the best pictures of the year because it is human and real throughout.

'BORN TO LOVE' IS NEW BENNETT FILM

"Born to Love," the story written for the screen for Constance Bennett and enacted by her, opened at the Fox West Coast theater last night, and proving that its advance publicity was all that it should have been. A highly sophisticated play, a comedy, it is one of the most entertaining pictures that has shown here in several months.

The star of "Sin Takes a Holiday" and "The Easiest Way," Miss Bennett is even more lovely, more charming in "Born to Love," in her part she is "born to love" the man she does not love and "born to love" a child which she must not claim.

Originality marks the plot of the show, although the love triangle is apparent throughout. A baby is brought into the scheme of things and manages to bring the lovers together at the end of the picture. The first part of the picture finds the star as a war nurse in London. The war soon is over, however, and the real plot of the story grows on the audience until the strange ending of the picture.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

The boat soon drifted to the shore to load aboard another store of tea that would be taken to another distant port. "My, what a big sail," Clowzy cried. "On that boat I would like to ride. If just a bit of wind picks up, 'twill be a lot of sport."

The Travel Man then walked up to the boat crew, saying, "Howdy do! These little Tynymites would like to take a pleasure trip. I'll pay you well, if you'll agree to take them out, and also me. I'm sure the water's calm enough so we won't rock and dip."

"All right," replied the Japanese. "We're always very glad to please." And so the Tynymites scrambled on and Clowzy cried "Let's go!" The ship was moved out from the shore and soon was on its way once more. There wasn't very much wind so they traveled rather slow.

For half an hour they rode around and in that time the Tynymites found 'twas just the same as riding in most any sort of boat. Said Clowzy, "Let's go back to shore. I do not care to ride much more. There is so little breeze that all we seem to do is float."

So that's just what they promptly did and, when up to the shore they slid, the Travel Man paid for the ride and they walked back to town. Said Clowzy, "Gee! What is the crowd? Let's go and see, if we're allowed. A man is in the middle and he's acting like a clown."

When to the gathering they ran, they found a clever juggling man, whom everyone was watching. He was putting on a show. The Tynymites watched him juggle knives and had the time of their young lives. Said Clowzy, "How to do such tricks is what I'd like to know."

(The Tynymites meet a Japanese farmer girl in the next story.)

Missing Letter Links

RULES:

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is per. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

A SUGGESTION

According to the evidence brought out, and in fact the confession of Second Officer John P. MacVicar, of the ill-fated Harvard, he knew the condition and position his ship was in for 10 minutes and might have saved her, but didn't.

From the reports, one is impressed that there was so much drinking aboard, that as to whether one was drunk or not could hardly be determined by other members of the crew or many of the passengers. For example, it appears that Quartermaster John Allen, who had been at the wheel from midnight to 1 a. m. and from 2 to 3 a. m. was charged by Captain Hill-singer himself with drunkenness, but after the ship struck.

He said that he failed to co-operate properly in securing the safety of passengers. But others declare that Mr. Allen was not drunk. MacVicar, who agrees that he was responsible, and that for a period of time he seemed to have been paralyzed, declares that Allen wasn't drunk.

Probably Allen declares that MacVicar wasn't drunk, and they all declare that nobody was drunk, while some of the few passengers who were sober, declare that everybody was drunk.

We would suggest that if the ship companies will see to it, when the boat leaves its port, that there is no liquor on board, that there is less likelihood of the ship running on the rocks on a perfectly clear night. They can also be assured that there will be enough sober people on board to get evidence as to who was responsible and whether they were drunk or not. We believe that the ship people can be trusted to do this very thing, for we can imagine what is transpiring in the offices of the company. They are undoubtedly taking steps to correct it.

These are days when a king's subjects are subject to whims of their own.

THE OLD PROBLEM AGAIN

The heads of our own government do not propose to let Germany's situation affect the payment of war debts due the United States. The money which the United States has been receiving, or which she has been promised from other countries, is received in turn by such countries as Great Britain, from Germany.

In fact, Great Britain has been receiving more from Germany than she has been paying out. There is a net gain to her. President Coolidge took the position that regardless of what Germany could or could not do, the Allies must pay the United States the debts they owe her. Of course it is the old problem over again. "I cannot pay Jim until Bill pays me," and Bill can't pay me until Robert pays him." Great Britain is undoubtedly willing to cancel the reparations due her from Germany if she can have her debts to the United States cancelled.

With Germany it is a most serious case, because unless she is released from these obligations in whole, or to a very great extent, she faces possible revolution. If this should come, the whole world would be the loser, including the United States.

Senator Bingham, of Connecticut, suggests a two-year moratorium on war debts. It is entirely possible that should the nations, notably Great Britain, which owe America, attempt to pay by adding to their burden of taxation, they would not be far removed from the condition which confronts Germany.

A two-year moratorium at least would avoid the serious consequences now. As to whether the countries would be in better shape to meet the difficulty then is problematical. Certainly the farther one is removed from the period when the debt is incurred, the less strong appear the obligations to meet it.

GOVERNORS SPEAK OUT

We do not always agree with men, but even if we do not we cannot fail to appreciate a man who talks out straight. In the recent Governors' Conference, both Governor Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, and Governor Ritchie, spoke right out in meeting. Governor Pinchot flung out his challenge against the power companies, and Governor Ritchie flung out his challenge against the Eighteenth amendment.

These are important issues, and we see a general desire on the part of the practical politician to side-step them. We don't believe these issues can be sidestepped. They must be faced head-on. They will continue to plague the parties until they are faced. In the campaign of 1932, no matter what platforms say or candidates say, the people will want to know where they stand on the power question and on prohibition. It will be difficult to get their minds on anything else. It is evident that both Governor Pinchot and Governor Ritchie are willing to cast the die and bide the results.

NOW COME THE FACTS

A few days ago a dispatch from Havre, France, declared that Mayor Porter, of Los Angeles, had left a table abruptly where it was suggested a toast in intoxicating liquor be drunk.

Those favoring liquor, as well as a great many who are strict prohibitionists, felt rather humiliated at the apparent boorishness, if not discourtesy, evidenced in this act of Mayor Porter. The dispatch made it appear that at a formal social function the mayor had evidenced his displeasure at what, to a group of French people, was a mere act of social courtesy. Immediately there was much criticism and suggestions as to what he might have done, rather than to have turned his back on his hosts and in apparent anger, stalked from the room.

Now come the facts, however, and we doubt seriously if anyone, regardless of his opinion, can complain of the Mayor's actions in respect to it. It suggests quite clearly that the news was sent out by someone who is charged with trying to find the very thing which, according to the dispatches, was found.

Mayor Porter's son and secretary has just received a letter from his father, and that portion relating to this incident is worth repeating. He said:

Ten-thirty a. m. found us leaving the Ile de France and we were loaded into buses and taken to the City Hall, where a reception was given. The Mayor and a group of officials stood in the receiving line shaking hands with us and then we went into an inner office, where a bar across one side of the room was laden with liquor and cakes.

After some speech-making, in which I have had no part so far, this liquor was passed around. Pictures of the crowd were taken and as Mrs. Porter and I do not drink we moved into the other rooms to see what we could find of interest. Our leaving was noticed by the newspaper reporters, who followed us and asked us why we left the room.

"Was it because liquor was being served?" I replied: "No—we had no objection to the serving."

"But we noticed you did not drink." I replied that we are American citizens, respect the Constitution and do not drink, but have no objection to anyone who does use liquor, as that is his or her privilege.

Later our press reporter asked if I had any objection to releasing the story for publication in the American papers. I replied not at all, so long as they did not misquote me.

I am not criticizing anyone for drinking; simply stating that I do not indulge myself.

We believe that Mayor Porter's actions in this episode were not out of harmony at all with the spirit of good fellowship and comradeship, at the same time upholding his convictions.

A NEW RECORD

The pastor of a Negro Baptist church in Washington has established the record for long distance preaching. He preached for 12 hours and 10 minutes, and discussed gambling, companionate marriage, law-breaking, prohibition, fast living, the evils in dancing, famine, pestilence and drought.

He preached nearly as long as the average minister is permitted to preach in all of the Sunday morning services for six months. The average Sunday morning sermon seems to be about 20 minutes.

The news dispatch did not say what his purpose was, but we suspect he achieved it in the collections.

Graves of the Presidents

New York Times

The fact that the White House is sending wreaths to be placed today on the graves of the two presidents buried in the region of New York City brings again to mind the discussion, now and then revived, of a national pantheon. Probably there never will be one; the nearest approach to it is Arlington; and it is sentimentally and psychologically better that there should be none. For the lives of most presidents have been so closely related to their native or adopted regions that to come upon their tombs, as upon Lincoln's at Springfield, suggests that an American Chief Executive can mount the heights from any origin.

Mount Vernon is ideally the place for Washington to rest. Where else but on his hilltop, where he wrote his principles of government, should Jefferson lie? Zachary Taylor is buried at the edge of what was the Indian country which he helped to add to the nation, near the Falls of the Ohio, in addition to the nation, near the Falls of the Ohio, in the Jefferson county, Kentucky. Wilson reposes in the Jefferson county, Kentucky. Though neither Staunton nor Princeton would have been amiss. The Hermitage near Nashville is Jackson's fitting tomb; it was from there that his fierce old eyes watched the declining light of his world. The life of Roosevelt is so linked to the family circle at Oyster Bay that no scene of any of his triumphs would have seemed so appropriate. And Harding, who always liked to say he "came from Main Street," belongs to Marion, as McKinley to Canton.

The presidents were the "forefathers of their hamlets." In the shadow of their own homes they seem to sleep most serenely.

Icebergs Missing in North Atlantic

San Bernardino Sun

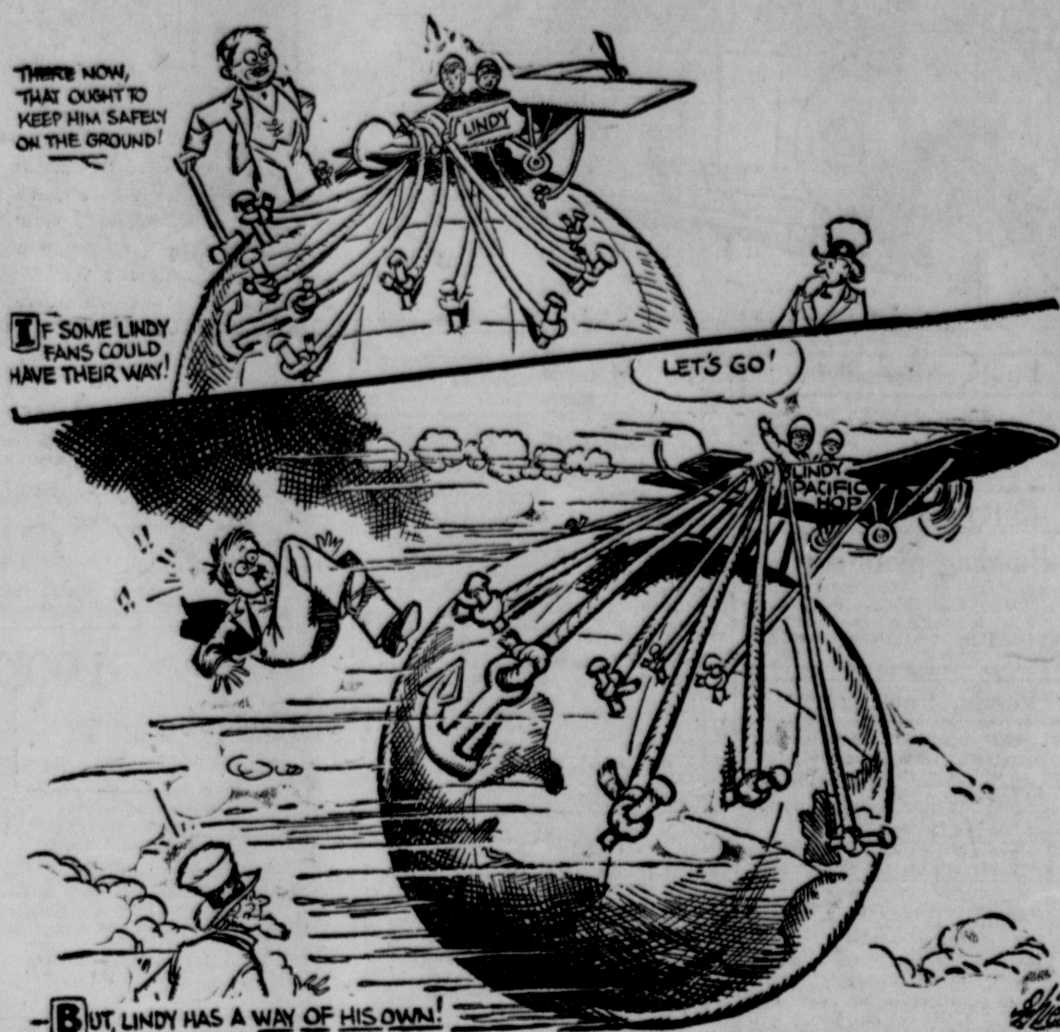

The amateur weather observers and "old timers" who like to argue with the Federal weather bureau over its contention that "weather conditions are not changing" will be interested to know that for the first time in memory of man there are this season no icebergs in the North Atlantic.

And what does it mean? The international ice patrol doesn't know, but the suggestion is advanced that the phenomenon has some connection with the drought of last year. The cutters usually required in the shipping lanes to report the presence of icebergs are now held in port with nothing to do.

The highest iceberg year previously reported, according to the United States Daily, was in 1924, when only 11 were charted south of Newfoundland. The heaviest month on record was April, 1912, when the Titanic was sunk after striking an iceberg. During that year a total of 1,019 icebergs were reported. The record year was 1908, when 1,024 were reported.

Certainly the fact that none has been reported this year indicates some change in the arctic circle. The coast guard may send an expedition into the far north to attempt to determine why the drift of icebergs was checked this season. One theory is that icebergs grounded along the coast of Labrador and Newfoundland because there was no "ice fence" to block their way and send them back into the ocean currents.

THE ANNUAL WARNING

All speech would be denied you,
You'd shrink in fear the while,
If you should see beside you
A savage crocodile.
Your flesh would start to creeping,
With terror you would shake,
If in your path lay creeping
An ugly rattlesnake.
And yet you look upon a fly
And never even bat an eye.

The tiger's indignation
You hear for miles around
And quake with trepidation
At such a horrid sound.
The lion's roar affrights you
When it afar you hear,
The grizzly's growl excites you
With palpitating fear.
And yet the fly upon the wall
You see, and never wince at all.

Unprepossessing features
And hideous voices, too,
Have all the feral creatures
But they are very few.
While flies in every region—
No man can count them all—
You meet with by the legion
From early spring till fall.
And they, like beasts, are filled with spite
And have a wicked, lethal bite.

A Dollar Down

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and
WADDILL CATCHINGS

What is the basic meaning of the extraordinary growth of instalment selling?

It is this: In a period of increasing productivity, industry turns out more consumers' goods than consumers can buy with their incomes.

That is the bed-rock fact. To overlook it is like making permanent plans for the traffic of a city on the assumption that the traffic does not increase, or on the assumption that each additional motor car brings with it its own parking space.

As a matter of fact, the piling up of stocks that cannot be sold for cash without a fall in prices is a normal phase of business expansion. It comes about because industry does not pay consumers as much money as it expects consumers to pay for its products—as much money as consumers MUST pay if business is to expand and prosper. In other words, business is conducted at a profit.

Consumers, moreover, have no source of income other than industry. Consequently, as the flow of goods increases, the flow of money does not long increase proportionately. Presently there are more goods on hand than the people can buy and pay for out of income.

To take these goods away at current prices, therefore, consumers must spend their savings. But consumers as a whole never do that. On the contrary, they increase their savings, both in depression and in prosperity.

There are, then, two main reasons why dealers cannot long continue to sell for cash all the goods that are turned out: first, because industry does not disburse to consumers enough money to buy its products; second, because consumers under the necessity of saving, do not spend even as much as they receive. That partly explains why industry has resorted more and more to the device of handing them goods, to be paid for out of future income.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

THE TONIC OF INSECURITY

Manifestly the world is in a phase of unprecedented insecurity. International insecurity! Nations do not feel secure. Armaments are amounting as nations cock a skeptical eye at the prospects of war and peace. Such safeguards as we presume to have set up against war seem none too convincing to the controlling leaderships of the several nations.

Industrial insecurity! Industries do not feel secure. The sudden swooping down of depression in a period of prosperity that seemed secure to the masses and to many of the leaders of the masses has, for the moment, unnerved many industrial leaders.

One senses, in talks with many industrial leaders, something new when earthquake and famine came upon them, unawares. Business cycles! Technological unemployment! Uncontrollable surpluses! These and kindred factors in the current industrial scene leave many in a mood of bewilderment.

Individual insecurity! There has been, in the generation of men now in early maturity, a vast unsettlement. Many find themselves adrift from old moorings. The catch-words that carressed their ears with assurances of unchanging the old slogans have gone stale. Science has shaken their youthful faith in the old slogans of politics, of economics, of religion, of education. Most of us are thinking in terms of 1931 and feeling in terms of 1831 or 1731 or even 1631.

I have done my share of pleading that leadership tackle the issue of insecurity—in the economic field—in dead earnest; but I want today to suggest another side of the picture.

There is a tonic as well as tragedy in insecurity. Insecurity challenges men as well as chastises them.

The great advances of the race biologically have come out of phases of insecurity, when wit was pitted against witlessness, when strength was triumphant over weakness, when men struggled to survive.

It is not good to loll too long in the sun, despite the health-giving powers of sunshine, for the tang of chill days challenges to action as sedative warmth can never do.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

THE TRUTH

More mothers have trouble teaching children to tell the truth than you would imagine. We all dread the untruthful person in the household. Anything is better than that, we cry. Then the darling prattler tells his mother a whopping big story. Mother is shocked. Sometimes she is angry. Always she is worried and fearful of the future of her child.

All children are born without knowledge of truth in the abstract. Telling the truth, loving the truth, living by it as well as we can, all that pertains to truth in the abstract, is an adult conception and not a very clear one. No one has ever touched truth. We all grope toward it. That is all we can do.

But the children cannot even do that. To them truth is a sound. Just another of the hard words that grown up people keep throwing at them. This one being a very hard one indeed it gives most trouble. The little children have to live in a world where their imagination pieces out what is short of meaning. That is a great deal in the beginning. Children do not understand most of what grown up people do. They get little meaning out of much of what they say.

They are puzzled by our antics. In self defense they avail themselves of the protection nature gave them, and use their imaginations to make life easier.

They tell things that please them. They make a story of a secret wish. They make a story of their deep desire to be big enough to do what big folks do. They learn to color stories to please us. They use their wit to help themselves adjust to a world all too big and too complex. Then we hurl Truth at their heads.

Might as well throw stones at the sky. We have to help a child put content and meaning into the word truth. First we have to know truth for ourselves and live it as well as we can. Children get their first lessons in truth from those about them. Experience is the best teacher here as elsewhere. Then we must deliberately teach truth and put meaning into the word by telling the child true stories, then make-believe stories. We get him to tell us real stories and make-up stories and know them apart.

When a child tells you a make-up story in self defense, or in an effort to piece out his all too short personality, listen kindly and sympathetically. When he is through telling, and you know he is creating as he goes along, tell him that he made a good story. Maybe now he could tell you the real story. It happens now that some of them cannot tell the two apart. Mental confusion sets in and he flounders helplessly.

Do not insist upon his straightening this out. You do it for him. Tell him in simple language, in as few words as possible, the real story, as well as you can get it. Say nothing about truth or morality. Be content to get the right story set in his mind. Be satisfied if you have registered in his thought that only the true story stays with you. He gets nowhere with the make-up story.

If you can do this with gentleness in the early years you will find that telling the story as it is will become a habit. This training is necessary for all children. It is a mistake to call any child a dishonest name, or to threaten him with the terrors of unknown forces. It is enough that he learn to like to tell the truth.

Mr. Patri will give personal attention to inquiries from parents and school teachers on the care and development of children. Write him in care of this paper, inclosing stamped addressed envelope for reply.)

KING RECEIVES PERSHING

On June 9, 1917, King George of England received General Pershing and his entire staff at Buckingham Palace.

General Lord Brooke, commander of the Twelfth Canadian Brigade, presented the American commander to the king, who said to him:

"It has been the dream of my life to see the two great English-speaking nations more closely united. My dreams have been realized. It is with the utmost pleasure that I welcome you, at the head of the American contingent, to our shores."

Later King George chatted for a few moments with each member of Pershing's staff. He conversed with the general for a quarter of an hour, shaking hands enthusiastically as they parted. This ceremony at the palace was followed by a series of calls and entertainments.
